Auxiliary Members To Distribute Food During Yule Season

Eagles auxiliary met Dec. 6 with 14 members attending the meeting held at Eagles hall. Members voted to make donations to the Eagles house in Mexico, M.D. Camp Columbia and for Christmas baskets to be distributed locally. Plans were also made for ladies Christmas party at next regular meeting and for assisting with the children's party.

Francis Laurance won the door prize for the evening and Barbara Jaques' name was called for the jackpot prize. Refreshments were served by Thelma Mefford and Fern Patterson and entertainment was furnished by Frances Laurance and Silvie Smith.

Eagles children's party was held Dec. 16 from 4 until 5 p.m.

VISIT IN CAPPER HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graves and family of Tahoe Valley, Calif., visited from Friday to Sunday at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Capper and family. Saturday evening the Cappers entertained at dinner for the Graves family and Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolff and family of Roswell. The California family was enroute to Scottsbluff, Neb., to spend the holidays with her parents and their son, Gerald Graves.

ATTEND BEAUTICIAN PARTY

Mrs. Eugene Stephen and Mrs. Eugene Cleaver attended a beauticians' Christmas party Tuesday evening at the Moore hotel in Ontario.

with approximately 100 children participating in the games and a visit from Santa Claus in the hall basement.

JAMES "SHORTY" JARAMILLO is among the American-Mexicans who grow sugar beets in the Nyssa area. Of his 440 acres, 90 are given over to growing beets. The farm is halfway between Nyssa and Ontario and he has been growing beets since 1942. Conditions weren't always so prosperous for the 5-foot, 3-inch farmer. During depression days he killed gophers for the county agent to get money to keep his family in food. Prior to that he worked as a section hand for Union Pacific railroad. He'll be 61 his next birthday, and he's proud of the beets he raises.

Mike G. Fehling Chosen Color Guard For Naval Command

Word has been received by the Journal that Mike G. Fehling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Niles of 114 South Third street, Nyssa, was recently chosen one of the color guards for the U.S. Naval Training Command, San Diego, Calif.

Fehling enlisted in the Navy Nov. 17 of this year. Prior to his enlistment, he attended Nyssa schools.

HAROLDSSENS RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Haroldsen returned home Thursday from Washington, D.C., where they had spent a month visiting their son, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Haroldsen and family.

YOUNG PEOPLE CAROL

Thirty young people of the Church of the Nazarene went caroling Sunday following their Christmas program. They later returned to the parsonage where refreshments were served.

Christmas Spirit Through the Year

When the Christmas spirit springs to life

In the human heart each year,
The world becomes, for a little time,

A haven of love and cheer.

The poor in body are clothed and fed,

And the lonely know once more
The warmth of hearing a welcome knock

On a too long silent door.

For these few days we remember well

That all mankind is kin,
Bound by the love of the Babe who found
No room in that long-ago inn.

But the day goes by, and the spirit dies,
So busy with living are we,
And the poor and the lonely are left once more

In hunger and apathy.

I have been guilty too, God knows,

Too busy to lend a hand,
Too busy to stop for a friendly chat,
Too busy to understand.

"No more, no more let this happen to me,
Dear Lord," I earnestly pray.

"Let me keep the Spirit the whole year through

As bright as it is today."

—Virginia Blanck Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tibbets, John Burki, Mrs. Luella May and Wallace May, all of The Dalles, arrived today to spend the holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tibbets and family.

Mr. and Mrs. August Uphoff of Vale and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schoen visited Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kurtz.

Committee Members Report Successful 'God's Acre Sale'

The 14th annual God's Acre sale held Dec. 3 at Adrian was a success, according to committee members. A good turnout was reported with an estimated $1600 grossed from the sale. Of this amount approximately $160 was taken in from the chicken dinner served by ladies of the church.

Four hams and four turkeys were given away to holders of winning tickets. Those receiving the prizes were Duane Bennett, Dick Bennett, Werner Peutz, Jim Lane, R. D. McKinley, Kenneth Mills, Jim Carroll and Avanel Walker.

Proceeds from the sale will go to the parsonage building fund unless otherwise designated by the donor.

The group has asked the Journal to extend its appreciation to Bert Anderson and Guy Sparks, auctioneers, and to all who helped in any way to make the event successful.

ATTEND TOURNAMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bertram recently attended the Eagles bowling tournament at Albany and visited an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jamison in Portland. They also attended ice hockey games while there. They spent some time in Walla Walla, Wash., with Mr. and Mrs. Bardel van Donge, Jr., and Mrs. B. D. Bolt, returning to Nyssa Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Findley of Junction City, Ore., were Monday dinner guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Gann.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many cards, gifts and letters. We wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hawkins and James.

Let the spirit of hope, and peace and love
prevail in our hearts and homes to give this
Holy Day its fullest meaning.
