St. Bridget's Church To Conduct Classes; Service Changes Told

Classes for inquirers will commence Tuesday, Jan. 3, at 8 p.m. in the upper room on the south end of the parish hall at Third and Park. These classes are held on Tuesday and Thursday nights from 8 to 9 p.m. and are intended for those who wish to learn the teaching of the Catholic church from an authoritative source and also for Catholics who wish to review the doctrines and morals of their religion.

The invitation to attend is given to all and the course is free. Because these classes follow a logical sequence, it is recommended that those who wish to take the course begin with the first lesson. Any person, however, is free to attend as few or as many classes as desired.

Hour of services in Adrian Catholic hall has been changed. The holy sacrifice of the mass will be offered on Sunday mornings at 9:30 a.m. Father Cletus Kirkpatrick will conduct the services in Adrian. Father Kirkpatrick is presently chaplain at Holy Rosary hospital and assistant priest in the Blessed Sacrament parish of Ontario.

During operation of the sugar beet factory, an afternoon mass will be celebrated at 4:15 p.m. on Sundays at St. Bridget's church in Nyssa. This afternoon mass will be had until the end of the sugar campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hooper and daughters were Christmas dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zinn.
