

Community Concert Program to Feature Pilar Gomez Group

The beautiful and fiery Pilar Gomez, who has formed a group of spirited young artists, will appear at the Community concert slated Jan. 30 at 8 p.m. in the Ontario high school auditorium, it was announced this week by Mrs. Murrel E. Doan, publicity chairman. The group is making its first tour of the season, exquisitely costumed and brilliantly choreographed.

They will present a varied and colorful repertoire of dances to include presentations from folklore of Andalusia, the Basque country and Mallorca. Also on the program will be rarely seen Mexican folk dances, the beautiful classic Flamenco and entertaining satires of more modern day works including those price-less steps of "The Roaring Twenties."

Jaime Rey, leading male dancer and expert classical danseur, makes his first appearances in Spanish ballet during this tour.

Sylvia Carmago, born in Mexico, but educated in San Francisco, and Mexican-born Victoria Flores have been featured with the New York City opera ballet, with dance troupes and on television.

Manuel De Lao of Spanish descent and Alejandro Rivas have been featured in stock, night clubs, on TV and in several off-Broadway productions.

Pilar Gomez, ably supported by these versatile performers, is like a Spanish portrait come to life, Mrs. Doan said.
