"If the price of electricity is so low, WHY HAS OUR BILL GONE UP?"

If your electric bills are higher these days, the main reason is that you're using more electricity for more things.

And because the price of electricity is so low, you're using much more of it . . . for wonderful new appliances that help you with the housework, entertain you, and make all your chores easier.

When you think how much your electric service does for so little, you'll probably agree it's just about the best bargain you can get today.
