Nyssa FFA Members Get Into Action For Coming Events

"Get Ready FFA" is the motto now used by FFA boys in preparing for coming events which include parent-son banquet for all Nyssa chapter FFA members, state convention at Salem and district skills contest at Baker.

Topics above were discussed at the January FFA meeting.

Parent-son banquet will be held Feb. 25 in the cafeteria. Six committees were put into action at the January FFA meeting. Officers of the chapter are acting as chairmen of the committees for the FFA dinner.

Parliamentary practice for district skills is going into full action by all members in preparation for a good team which will represent the local chapter at Baker.

Delegates going to the state convention are selected by chapter members.

As a special note, Andrew Child took first place in public speaking for the Nyssa chapter. He will compete with the district for his next competition at Baker.
