Wright Child, formerly of this area, and also visited other relatives. She spent several days in Morgan with her sister, the Hugo Olsen family, and with a son, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Flinders in Ogden.

Other Nyssa ladies attending the conference included Mrs. Joy Bell and Mrs. Reva Anderson.

Bob Love, Nyssa police chief who talked on youth problems in Nyssa. He stated that Nyssa's youth was the town's biggest asset and that all residents should be concerned with their problems.

The greatest cause of delinquency, according to Love, is broken homes or those full of trouble. He stressed the need of more firm parental control of teenagers and declared that irresponsible use of automobiles was a major factor in the increase of juvenile crime in Malheur county.

Love recommended driver training, more employment for youth and commended Nyssa for starting a swimming program.

Coming events announced were the annual spring breakfast April 28-29 and the Wallowa lake work camp May 5-6. Next meeting will be a potluck supper June 12 with wives and families attending as guests.
