Each girl presented her mother with a potted petunia.

Mrs. Orth Selected Woman of the Year At Emblem Club Meet

Mrs. Wallace Orth was named "Woman of the Year" at a May 8 meeting of Ontario Emblem club 192. She had worked on most of the club's projects including community service, blood bank, preparing food for Elks, TB drive, mothers march on polio, Elks' all-star football banquet, ways and means committee and others.

Ruby Stoner, chairman for a rummage sale, asked that all members save articles for the sale to be held early in June. Auditing committee report was given by Shirley Hughes.

Members voted at the Monday meeting to purchase a mimeograph for club use and also voted to sponsor a bowling league of approximately 35 to 40 members.

Club members were reminded of buffet suppers to be held the first Sunday of each month and the Emblem breakfast slated for May 21.

The drill team, planning to enter competition in October at the national convention in Las Vegas, will perform at a meeting in the near future.

Barbara Martin and Dale R. Collins United in Sterry Memorial Church

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Collins

Roswell Sterry Memorial Presbyterian church was the scene of a ceremony April 16, 1961, uniting Miss Barbara Ellen Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Martin of Parma and Dale Rodney Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Collins of route 2, Parma.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard Mastbrook at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, in the presence of 160 invited guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown of white chambray lace over nylon net featuring fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and pearlized sequin neckline. The back of her gown was accented with a large white satin bow. She carried a lavender orchid and mum nosegay on a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Judy French who wore an orchid nylon organza gown and carried an orchid pom-pom nosegay. The bridesmaids were flower girls, Janie Hanson and Debbie Cornwell, while Theresa and John Martin, sister and brother of the bride, served as candlelighters. Ring bearer was Lynn Lee.

John Boston attended as best man and ushers were Cecil Eason, Robert Bale and Ed Cahill, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Vocal solos, "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer," were rendered by Janice Howard, accompanied by Mrs. Carol Harris at the organ.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given in the church basement, with Hannah Melton, Naomi Campbell, Opal Patchin and Beverly McGrath as hostesses. Mrs. DeLoy Desara, Mrs. Jerry Johnston, Mrs. Robert Bale, Mrs. John Boston and the Misses Carolyn Melton and Lilly Higgins were in charge of registering and placing the gifts. Mrs. Sharon Cahill, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the guest book.

Out-of-town relatives and friends attending the ceremony and reception included those from Fair Oaks, Calif.; Hagerman, Donnelly, Emmett, Nampa, Caldwell, Eagle and Boise, Idaho; Nyssa and Burns, Ore.

The new Mrs. Collins was a 1959 graduate of Parma high school and is employed in the office of Caxton Printers in Caldwell. The bridegroom also attended Parma high school and is employed as a carpenter by Richard Wight of Parma.

Following a wedding trip to Sun Valley, the newlyweds are making their home at 1040 A street in Parma.

Friday evening guests at the Owen Gann home were Messrs. and Mmes. John Reeves, Ben Storm, Walt Looney and Herb Cox.

Elizabeth Peutz Elected to Head Eagles Auxiliary

Eagles auxiliary met Tuesday, May 2, at the Eagles hall with 24 members attending. Margaret Sage was winner of the door prize and Betty Jean Talbot's name was called for the jackpot award.

Madam State President Barbara Jaques reported that Alta Stunz was initiated by the Salem auxiliary April 11. Mrs. Jaques made her official visitation to Salem at that time and Mrs. Alberta Bowen attended the ceremony.

Ruth Colling, Mildred Renstrom and Sharon Jaques were selected as delegates to state convention to be held the last of June. Alternates are Mary Lee Chadwick, Frances Laurance and Bernice Cleaver.

Election of officers was held with Elizabeth Peutz chosen as president; Stella Swager, vice president; Jimmie Ann Hatch, chaplain; Faye McGinnis, inside guard; Sharon Jaques, outside guard; Irene Barton, three-year trustee, and Lena Tyler was appointed conductress.

Joint installation will be held June 3 with Mary Lee Chadwick, installing president; Larene Beckstead, installing conductress; and Claudine Garrison, installing chaplain.

Next meeting will be held May 16 and will be preceded by a potluck dinner honoring the drill team, pianist and conductress. Gladys Byers, auxiliary mother, will also be honored at this meeting. The dinner will be held in the Eagles hall basement beginning at 7 p.m. Ruth Kortlever, Sadie Metcalf, Freida Holcomb, Billie Wright and Elaine Olsen are candidates for membership who will be initiated.

Pat Cleaver will furnish the door prize. Bertha Taylor, Fern Patterson, Betty Talbot and Norma Asumendi will be acting hostesses.

Kitchen Shower Honors Bride-Elect Joan Bellon

Miss Joan Bellon was honored May 11 with a kitchen shower by 17 ladies of the Christian church at the home of Mrs. Cecil Richards.

The bride-elect received many useful gifts. Refreshments were served by Olive May Hastings and Phyllis Richards.

Miss Bellon, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bellon, will be married May 26 to James Kenneth Jefferies.

Amity Club Ladies Accept New Members At Hankie Shower

Three new members, Mmes. Wayne Simpson, Ray Kynaston and Frank Skeen, were accepted into Amity club when members met May 4 at the home of Mrs. Arvel L. Child.

During the business portion of the meeting, committee members were named. Program committee comprises Mmes. J. Elwood Flinders, Frell Blair and W. O. Peterson. Named to the banquet and summer party committee were Mmes. Dean Fife, Delbert Hooper and Lloyd Lewis.

Gift committee members are Mrs. Mark Moncur and Mrs. Taft Pett. Committee members for the Christmas party are Mmes. Snodden Roberts, Charles Mann and Solon Lewis.

A surprise handkerchief shower was given at the Thursday meeting for Mrs. Child and 17 members were served refreshments.

Next meeting will be May 19 at the home of Mrs. Walker Low.

Jenkins-Larson Rites Performed in Arizona

Announcement has been received of the wedding of Miss Sandra Jenkins of Idaho Falls, Idaho, and Nels Larson of Williams, Ariz.

The ceremony was performed May 5 in Mesa, Ariz., and a reception followed in the Legion building at Williams.

Larson attended Adrian schools and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Larson, former residents of the Nyssa-Adrian area.

May Rites Unite Dealda Lowtrip, William Linville

Miss Dealda Fern Lowtrip, daughter of Mrs. Delphine Collins of 517 North Sixth street, and Private First Class William C. Linville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Linville of route 2, Nyssa, were united in marriage May 5, 1961.

The single ring, 8 o'clock evening ceremony was performed by the Rev. Omar Barnhouse in the presence of family members.

For her wedding, the bride chose a white sheath dress trimmed with white satin embroidery, white ribbon hat with short veil and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Thomas Wiley, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor and wore a rose gown and yellow rose corsage. Max Linville served his brother as best man.

Mrs. Collins chose for her daughter's wedding a gray and green brocade sheath dress with green accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace dress with white accessories.

The new Mrs. Linville was a student at Payette Beauty school. Her husband is a 1959 graduate of Adrian high school and is presently serving with the armed forces.

The couple will make their home at Renton, Wash., until the bridegroom is discharged from the service.

Miss Joan Baker and Gary Collings of Boise were weekend guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mamie Baker.
