

Eagles Auxiliary Schedules Food And Flower Sale

Eagles auxiliary met Tuesday evening at Eagles hall with 38 members attending the potluck dinner honoring the drill team. The head table was decorated with a cake trimmed with miniature marching dolls and place cards depicting symbols of the auxiliary.

Seven new members initiated into the organization were Ruth Kartlever, Sadie Matcalf, Freida Holcomb, Billie Wright, Elaine Olsen, Mary Jo Heuter and Glenda Carpenter.

Evelyn Kelley's name was drawn for the jackpot prize and Betty Jean Holcomb won the door prize. The social committee reported on ladies' night affair and announced the annual cooked food and flower sale to be held May 29 at Howard's Chevron station and urged all members to participate.

Madam President Edna Mills presented a gift and a mother's pin to Gladys Byers, auxiliary mother, and also presented an azalea plant to Virginia Brandt in appreciation for her help with Carlos Parra's art work during the past two years.

President-elect Elizabeth Peutz announced that there will be a special practice for all new officers June 1 beginning at 7:45 p.m. in the Eagles hall and a joint installation practice for Eagles, auxiliary and drill team at 9 p.m. Next regular meeting of the

Emblem Club Wins Ritualistic Honors At State Convention

At the fifth annual convention in Seaside, represented by 11 Oregon clubs, Emblem club No. 192 of Ontario was awarded the ritualistic trophy for the second time. One more winning will be for permanent possession.

The club was also awarded a trophy for its press scrap book. A third honor was the naming of Mrs. Wallace Orth as "Emblem Woman of the Year," having first won the honor locally. Twenty-six local members attended, traveling by chartered bus.

A featured speaker was Miss Marcelle Montgomery, physical therapist for Emblem-sponsored mobile unit which travels the circuit of northern Oregon and Malheur counties. She reported on excellent progress of patients.

Mrs. Lamont Fife of Nyssa was elevated to third vice president and Mrs. Chet Toedemeier to fourth trustee at an impressive ceremony when Edythe Williams of Portland was installed as state president.

The sixth annual convention of Emblem clubs will be at Multnomah hotel, Portland, in June 1962.

The auxiliary will be June 6 at 8:30 p.m. This will also be a birthday party for all members having anniversaries during May and June. Lena Tyler will furnish the door prize, Roberta Holcomb and Ruth Collins will be in charge of refreshments and Vivian Crocker and Edna Mills will provide the entertainment.
