Afternoon Candlelight Rites Unite Sherral Sisson, Gary K. Shoemaker

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Shoemaker

—Portrait by Schoen.

Miss Sherral Sisson became the bride of Gary Keith Shoemaker at a 3 o'clock afternoon ceremony May 28, 1961, in Nyssa Christian church.

The new bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Sisson of route 2, Nyssa. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Shoemaker of Tacoma, Wash.

Amid a setting of baskets of blue and white gladioli and blue tapers, the Rev. Earl Hastings performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin featuring nylon lace bodice with sabrina neckline trimmed in sequins and seed pearls. Her pointed lace sleeves were wrist length and the back of her gown was accented with French puffs.

Her fingertip veil, edged in lace, was held by a tiara of tiny pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses, blue stephanotis and blue streamers on a white Bible.

Miss Jackie Girvin, maid of honor; Bonnie Wilson, cousin of the bride, and Linda Kafton, bridesmaids, wore identical ballerina-length gowns of blue brocade satin and carried bouquets of blue tinted carnations.

Candlelighters were Loren and Vernon Yaden, cousins of the bride. Flower girls, Lennie and Cynthia Williams, also cousins of the bride, were dressed in blue brocade satin gowns.

Duane M. Shoemaker served his brother as best man, while ushers were the bride's brothers, Stanley and Dean Sisson.

Soloists during the ceremony were Mrs. Elvin Ballou, singing "Because," and the Rev. Robert Kriner, Jr., singing "Our Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Ballou was accompanied by Robert Pond and the Rev. Kriner was accompanied by Mrs. Ballou.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sisson chose a dress of beige lace over pink satin with pink and beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a royal blue satin dress with beige accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

At a church reception following the ceremony, a five-tier blue and white wedding cake graced the serving table. The cake, decorated with blue and white wedding bells, pink rosebuds and topped with miniature bride and groom, was made by Mrs. Russell Girvin of Vale.

Mrs. Dan Sieber, the bridegroom's cousin; Mrs. Warren Williams, the bride's aunt; Mrs. Marvin Anderson, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Byron Kleinkopf presided at the serving table. Registering and placing the gifts were the Misses Carolyn Jones, Ellen Sager and Carol Adams. Miss Martha Jean Brown was in charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Shoemaker was graduated from Nyssa high school with the class of 1957 and was also graduated from Oregon State university in December 1960. She taught in the primary grades at Jamieson since graduation.

The bridegroom was graduated from Nampa high school in 1955 and in 1959 was graduated from Northwest Christian college in Eugene.

For her wedding trip to the mountains, the new Mrs. Shoemaker wore a toast and beige linen sheath dress with beige accessories. The young couple will be at home at 2655 Highland Way in Corvallis, where he is pastor of Glendale Christian church.

In addition to immediate family members of both bride and bridegroom, special guests attending the wedding and reception included the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shank of Filer, Idaho, and the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi W. Sisson of Twin Falls.

Other out-of-town guests included relatives and friends from Filer, Jerome, Nampa, Buhl, Payette and Parma, Idaho.
