

Miss Ruth Herrman, Duane Buchtel Exchange Vows in Evening Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Buchtel —Portrait by Schoen.

Nyssa Methodist church was the scene June 3, 1961, of a 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony uniting Miss Ruth Herrman and Duane Buchtel.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Herrman of route 2, Nyssa. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Buchtel of Clay Center, Neb.

The Rev. Paul Ludlow performed the double-ring rites amid a setting of altar floral arrangements furnished by Mrs. Gerrit Stam.

Vocal solos, "I'll Walk Hand in Hand With God," "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer" were rendered by Mrs. Don Eaton of Emmett, Idaho, accompanied by Mrs. Walter Lovercheck.

The couple was attended by Mrs. Larry Vaughn as matron of honor and the Rev. Royce Buchtel, brother of the bridegroom, as best man. Ushers were Keith Herrman, Walter Lovercheck and Gary Maxson.

A three-tier, all-white wedding cake, decorated by Mrs. Merildean Robbins, graced the serving table at a reception held in the church social hall. Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. Josephine Thompson, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Colin Hamberg and Mrs. Norman Gregg, the bride's sisters, and Miss Joyce Jensen. They were assisted by Mmes. Merildean Robbins, Don Lytle, Norville Robbins and Walter Ford.

Gifts were accepted and placed by Mrs. Keith Herrman and Mrs. Royce Buchtel. Miss Lois Wilson registered the guests.

During the reception, piano music was furnished by Miss Sherrill Jean Robbins and candles were lighted by Miss Elizabeth Dean.

The new Mrs. Buchtel is a graduate of Nyssa high school, Deaconess School of Nursing and Whitworth college in Spokane. Her husband was graduated from Clay Center, Neb., high school and Hastings college in Hastings, Neb.

The young couple will make their home in The Dalles, Ore., where he will teach high school classes.

Special guests at the wedding and reception included immediate family members of both bride and bridegroom from Nebraska, Michigan, Washington, Montana and western Oregon.

Other guests were the couple's classmates, the Misses Elizabeth Dean and Joyce Jensen of Spokane and Gary Maxson of Walla Walla, Wash.
