

Evening Rites Performed in Roswell Unite Miss Delores Codr, Mike Stam

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stam

—Portrait by Schoen.

At an 8 o'clock evening ceremony performed June 8, 1961, in Roswell First Baptist church, Miss Delores Codr and Mike Stam were united in marriage in the presence of 250 invited guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Codr of route 2, Parma, Idaho. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Stam of route 1, Nyssa.

The double ring rites were performed by the Rev. Robert Mordhorst amid a setting of pink and white arrangements of peonies.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over satin and net, featuring scalloped neckline and long lace sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a band of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink rose buds.

Miss Judy Codr, gowned in pink and white and carrying a pink bouquet, attended as maid of honor. Other attendants were Miss Donna Stam and Mrs. Al Elsberry, wearing pink gowns and carrying white bouquets. Miss Ronna Codr, dressed in pink and white, served as flower girl.

Male attendants were Ray VanderOord, best man; Jack Moore and Gary Lundy, while ushers were Jeff Parker, Duane Codr and Knute Stoneberg.

Vocal selections during the ceremony were rendered by Miss Margaret Tuning and Mark Shaw, accompanied by Mrs. Ruel Farwell.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Codr chose a pink flowered chiffon dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of aqua lace. Both wore orchid corsages.

At a reception following the ceremony a three-tier wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom, centered the serving table. Assisting were Mmes. Pete VanderOord, Lyle Nugent, Carroll Sparks, Duane Codr and Miss June Stam.

For their wedding trip to the mountains above John Day, the bride wore a white sheath dress with tangerine jacket.

The new Mrs. Stam was graduated from Parma high school with the class of 1961. The bridegroom was a member of the 1959 graduating class of Nyssa high school. The newlyweds will make their home in the Nu Acres community where he is engaged in farming.

Out-of-state guests attending the wedding and reception included Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Nugent and family of Seattle.

Open Installation Held Monday By OES Chapter

Golden Rule chapter 131, Order of Eastern Star, held its regular meeting June 19 at the Masonic hall with Worthy Matron Elizabeth House presiding.

Immediately following the meeting, open installation of new officers was held with Past Worthy Grand Matron of Oregon Mrs. Myrtle B. Peterson as installing officer of the evening. Assisting Mrs. Peterson were Past Matrons Betty Rinehart, installing grand marshal; Louise Wernick, installing grand chaplain; and Joyce Lienkaemper, installing grand organist.

Katherine Brendle was installed as worthy matron and Harold Brendle, worthy patron. Others installed were Laura Penrod, associate matron; Paul Penrod, associate patron; Mae Schireman, secretary; Ida Miner, treasurer; Thelma Huffman, conductress.

Patricia Marcum, associate conductress; Cleta Boetger, chaplain; Vera Paulus, marshal; Jessie Brown, organist; Vera Olsen, Ada; Helen Webb, Ruth; Royce Cole, Esther; Lois Cartwright, Martha; Nora Graham, Electa; Mildred Lancaster, warder; and George Cartwright, sentinel.

Escorted and introduced were the new worthy matron's sons, Harry and Hal, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peterson, worthy matron's parents; Esther Pierce and George White, worthy matron and patron of Star chapter 69, Ontario; Elizabeth House and William Schireman, junior past worthy matron and patron. They were also presented with pins.

Also introduced were Helen Maulding, grand guide of International Order of Job's Daughters; Karen Ellis and Jan Rinehart, honored queens; Dianne Maulding, Kristin Rinehart Hays, Mary Lou Lancaster, Cleta Boetger and Patricia Marcum, past honored queens.

Job's Daughters choir sang their selection, "Madam Jeanette" which they will sing in choral competition Thursday at grand session in Portland. Dianne Maulding is choir director.

Junior Past Worthy Matron Elizabeth House presented Katherine Brendle with the worthy matron's Bible and Nora Graham gave her a rose in a bud vase. Job's Daughters sang "You'll Never Walk Alone" and Mrs. Graham recited a poem in honor of the worthy matron.

Following the closing ceremony, refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Forbess, Virginia Timmerman, Kay Wheeler and Louise Wernick. Karen Ellis and Mary Lou Lancaster served coffee and punch.

Emblem Members Elect Delegates To Convention

Business meeting of the Emblem club was called to order June 12 by Donella Bybee, president. Great hilarity interrupted reading of the minutes when nine past presidents descended upon the meeting, bruised, bandaged and dressed to depict themselves as "has beens."

The entry was led by Mrs. S. Conley Davis, followed by Mmes. Dick Taylor, David Brizendine, Dan McCosum, H. Pearman Rowe, Bert Anderson, Lamont Fife, Ines Wilson and Chet Toedemeier.

During intermission, the drill team, wearing identical white uniforms, red corsages and sparkling jewelry, performed under the direction of Captain Hester Farry.

A detailed report on the recent state convention was given by Mrs. John Elfering. Mrs. Lamont Fife reported for the local delegation who went to La Grande for the purpose of organizing an Emblem club. She reported on the interest of Nampa and Sandpoint, Idaho, for a club.

Delegates elected to attend national convention in Las Vegas are Dovie Orth, Leo Sears, Virginia Hoyle and Elinor Attebury, with Louise Strawn, Marie Moggridge, Evelyn Shaw and Golda Elfering as alternates.

Bowling trophies were presented by Mrs. Toedemeier to Beverly Barry, Marie Moggridge, Vesta King and Edna Yraguen. Ritualistic, press and woman of the year trophies won on state level were presented to the club by President Bybee.

The club voted to sponsor a junior drill team comprising children of members, with instructor and meeting place to be announced later.

The June 26 social meeting will feature a flower arranging by Ontario Flower Shop. Members are urged to bring fresh or artificial flowers, and a door prize will be given. This is the final meeting until September.

Reservations are now available for the Aug. 8 no-host dinner at Elks lodge honoring the visitation of Bunny Harris, supreme president.

Patricia Michaelson and James Thiel United in Faith Lutheran Church

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Thiel

—Portrait by Schoen.

Faith Lutheran church in Nyssa was the scene of a wedding ceremony performed June 11, 1961, uniting Miss Patricia Ann Michaelson and James Roger Thiel.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Michaelson of 218 North Sixth street in Nyssa. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thiel of Greeley, Colo.

The three o'clock afternoon, double-ring rites were performed by Pastor John L. Briebl in the presence of 115 invited guests. Solist during the ceremony was Miss Judith Ann Conway, accompanied by Mrs. Dwight Wyckoff.

Escorted to the altar by her father, Miss Michaelson wore a floor-length gown of silk organza over satin. Her short veil of French illusion was held by a crown of mint green stephanotis. Her bouquet, carried on a white Bible, was a white orchid with mint-green ribbon streamers containing single stephanotis blossoms.

Miss Clarinda Ashley attended as maid of honor and wore a street-length gown of mint-green tissue cotton. She carried a bouquet of white pom-pom mums and stephanotis.

Richard A. Smith served as best man, while ushers were Larry D. Stuart and Jack E. Dail.

Swimming Pool Park To Be Landscaped By Local Garden Club

Town and Country Garden club members met June 15 at the home of Mrs. Howard Myrick with 16 ladies in attendance. Mrs. Fred Ginder of Gardena, Calif., Mrs. Hal Henigson, Mrs. Earl Hastings and Mrs. Ed Pruyn were guests.

Mrs. Bob Skow conducted the business meeting. Newly appointed committee chairmen were Mrs. Harvey Springer, membership; Mrs. S. P. Bybee, program; Mrs. K. E. Kerby, project; Mrs. Mark Hartley, publicity; Mrs. Floyd Hale, scrapbook; Mrs. Howard Myrick, courtesy.

New business discussed included a fair booth display at Malheur county fair.

Mrs. Dudley Kurtz, president of the club, is presently attending state convention at Gearhart, Ore.

A report was given on projects completed during the past month. Members planted 17 dozen petunias plants at Malheur Memorial hospital grounds. Following a conference with City Manager Art Colby, Mrs. Bud Tibbets reported that the group will landscape the new swimming pool grounds. As a result of this project the club will compete in Sears Community Beautification contest.

The group has been asked and has accepted to be merit badge sponsor for Nyssa second class Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Norbert Sarazin designed and hand painted yearbook covers for club members.

Program consisted of brief talks by Mrs. Roy Sewright on peonies and Mrs. Floyd Hale, dahlias.

New members recently joining the organization were Mmes. Clarence Clapp, Bud Tibbets, Sue Chamberlain, Harvey Springer, Norbert Sarazin, Hal Henigson, Carl Grunke and Reed Ray.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bob Skow. Guest speaker will be a floral shop representative and topic will be Japanese arrangements.

Dick Meisinger attended as acolyte.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Michaelson chose a gown of pale blue satin brocade and wore a corsage of white roses.

A three-tier wedding cake, decorated with pink rosebuds and topped with miniature bride and groom, graced the serving table at a reception held in Nyssa community hall.

Serving cake, coffee and punch were the Mmes. Hal Henigson, Max Jones, John L. Briebl and Miss Nellie Smit. Gifts were accepted and placed by Mrs. Richard Smith and the Misses Peggy Yost, Sandra Lewis and Jani Stuart. Miss Tanya Burningham was in charge of registering guests.

The new Mrs. Thiel was graduated from Nyssa high school with the class of 1961 and is presently employed at Schoen Studios. Her husband was graduated from Ontario high school and is employed at Max Jones motor company in that city.

Following a wedding trip to the west coast, the newlyweds are residing at Bennett's apartments in Nyssa.
