

Evening Methodist Church Ceremony Unites Ellen Sager, Larry Williams

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Williams

Floral arrangements of snapdragons, delphinium and iris, flanked with blue lighted tapers, provided the setting June 18, 1961, at the Methodist church for an 8 o'clock evening ceremony uniting Miss Ellen Sager and Larry Williams.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sager of 17 North Ninth street, Nyssa. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Williams of Fruitland, Idaho.

The Rev. Paul Ludlow performed the double ring rites in the presence of 150 invited guests.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Sager wore a gown of nylon organza trimmed with French lace, iridescent sequins and seed pearls which featured long lily-point sleeves. The skirt, gathered in front and back, was outlined to match the neckline and flowed into a chapel train.

Her fingertip length veil of English illusion was held by a tiara of sequins and tiny pearls.

Her gown was that worn by her older sister, Mrs. Kenneth (Letha) Hummels at a ceremony performed Aug. 14, 1960.

A white prayer book, given to her by the bridegroom, held her bouquet containing an orchid, blue stephanotis and ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Hummels attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Sager, also sister of the bride, and Miss Elaine Ohman. They were attired in embroidered ice-blue cotton satin gowns and carried blue aster daisies.

Jim Storms served as best man, while ushers were Harlan Sager and Larry Snyder. Candle lighters were Gary Sager and Leslie Snyder.

Vocal selections during the ceremony were rendered by Mrs. Hummels, Mrs. Blaine Brown and a trio comprising Harley, Kyle and Maynard Sager. They were accompanied by Mrs. Tom Foster and Miss Gloria Gonyer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sager chose a paisley print ensemble and wore a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore an olive green sheath dress and a corsage of cream roses.

Methodist women were hostesses for a reception following the ceremony. A three-tier wedding cake, containing blue and pink roses and topped with white bells and pink lilies, centered the refreshment table. Mrs. Earl Sager and Mrs. Bela Sager cut and served the cake. In charge of pouring coffee and punch were

Local Bethel Attends State Grand Session Of Job's Daughters

Twenty-six members of Bethel 33 Job's Daughters returned home Sunday evening from Portland where they attended grand session last week in Neighbors of Woodcraft hall. The local group was among 1100 delegates representing bethels from all over the state.

Honors received by the local bethel included winning second place in choral competition, receiving the traveling gavel for traveling most miles to attend grand session and placing seventh in scrapbook competition. This is the second year in succession they have received the traveling gavel and the first time they have placed in the scrapbook division.

Miss Bonnie House was selected as one of the grand pages and Dianne Maulding, local choir director, was chosen to lead the top four bethel choirs Thursday evening in opening ceremonies.

In addition to attending meetings, the girls toured Lloyd's Center and were taken to Forest Grove where they visited elderly residents of the Eastern Star and Masonic home.

Mrs. John Olsen, Mrs. Paul House, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wernick accompanied the girls by chartered bus. They were joined in Portland by Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Maulding.

Grand session will be held at Coos Bay next year.

Eagles Auxiliary Meeting Changed; Canteen Help Asked

Rose Wilson was elected into Eagles auxiliary when 19 members met June 20 at Eagles hall. She will be initiated at the July 18 meeting. Joan Holcomb's name was called for the jackpot prize and Irene Bartron was winner of the door prize at the Tuesday meeting.

Gretta Broad, chairman, asked for volunteers to assist with canteen work during the bloodmobile visitation July 6 at the hall. Members wishing to volunteer services for a two-hour shift are asked to contact Mrs. Broad.

Refreshments were served in the basement by Mary Lee Chadwick and Jan Bartron, following the Tuesday evening business session.

Next regular meeting will be July 11 instead of the regular meeting night, due to the July 4 holiday. This meeting will also begin a contest for perfect membership, with awards to be given at the end of the year.

Committee members for the July 11 meeting are Mildred Renstrom and Birdie Leseberg, refreshments; Virginia Brandt and Johnny Russell, entertainment.

Jaycees Summer Party Held at Tibbets Home

Jaycees annual summer party was held Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Tibbets with 12 couples present. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinley of Ontario were guests.

A late supper was served and the evening was spent dancing.

the Misses Sharon Brown and Janice Sager, cousins of the bride. The bride was a 1961 graduate of Oregon State university and the bridegroom was graduated from University of Idaho in 1961. Both are employed by Boeing Aircraft in Seattle where they will make their home.

The new Mrs. Williams designed and made her travel costume, a red-flowered surah sheath jacket dress which she wore to Seattle with white accessories and orchid corsage.

Invited guests attending the ceremony and reception included those from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, California and Colorado.

Miss Verna Graham, Jerald Browne Wed in Wallowa Afternoon Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Browne

Wallowa Methodist church was the scene June 11, 1961, of a 3:30 o'clock afternoon wedding ceremony uniting Miss Verna Graham and Jerald Browne.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graham of Elgin, Ore. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Browne of Nyssa.

The Rev. William Woodman, former Nyssa, minister of the Episcopal church in La Grande, performed the double-ring rites in the presence of 200 invited guests, before a setting of gladioli, daisies and lighted tapers in double candelabra. Soloist during the ceremony was Miss Nancy Brooks who sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Wedding Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. H. N. Ashby who also played the wedding march and traditional music.

Escorted to the altar by her father, Miss Graham wore a princess-style, floor-length gown of silk-faced peau de soie, applied with Alencon lace, sequins and pearls. It was designed with French puff in back and chapel train. Her elbow-length veil of French illusion was held by a tiara of sequins and pearls. Her corsage contained a large yellow-throated orchid which she carried on her Rainbow Girls' Bible.

Mrs. Jim Butler attended as matron of honor and wore a gown of yellow brocade and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white daisies. Bridesmaids, the Misses Nancy Brooks and Sandra Patrick, niece of the bride, wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor and carried bouquets of yellow gladioli and white daisies. Miss Jean Coulter, niece of the bridegroom, dressed in yellow and white nylon and wearing yellow sash, served as flower girl. All female attendants wore matching headbands and white gloves.

Scott Coulter, brother-in-law of the groom, attended as best man, while ushers were Lorin O'Gara and Leslie Hiatt who also served as candlelighters.

Mrs. Graham chose for her daughter's wedding a blue brocade dress in light and dark tones. The bridegroom's mother wore a black and white print dress. Both wore yellow rose corsages.

A three-tier wedding cake, on a three-leaf clover shaped base, centered the refreshment table at a reception held in the church basement following the ceremony. The white cake contained yellow roses, green leaves and was topped with miniature bride and groom. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. B. B. Lienkaemper; Mrs. Henry Conner, the bride's aunt; Mrs. Jim Patrick, sister of the bride and Miss Barbara Browne, the bridegroom's sister.

Numerous out-of-town and out-of-state guests attended the wedding and reception.

For their honeymoon trip to the coast, the new Mrs. Browne chose a yellow dress with white accessories.

The bride was a 1957 graduate of Wallowa high school. She was graduated in June from Eastern Oregon college with a degree in elementary education. The bridegroom was a 1953 graduate of Nyssa high school and will grad-
