Jackie Girvin, Stanley Sisson Wed In Vale Christian Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sisson

A double ring ceremony at Vale Christian church united Jackie Ann Girvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Girvin of Vale, and Stanley Sisson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sisson of Nyssa. The afternoon rites were performed July 2, 1961, in the presence of 150 guests by the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Gary Shoemaker of Corvallis, assisted by William Humphreys, minister of the church.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli and lighted tapers formed the background for the ceremony. Sandy Kriner of La Grande sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh Promise Me," and wedding music was played by Nancy Fields of Salem.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of lace over satin, fashioned with pointed waistline, long sleeves and scalloped V-neckline. An overskirt of lace enhanced the bouffant skirt. Her tulle-trimmed lace veil fell from a sequined tiara. She wore a single pearl pendant, a gift of the bridegroom and carried a cascade of red roses. She was given in marriage by her father.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Gary Shoemaker, sister of the bridegroom, wearing white nylon over taffeta and carrying pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Lorraine Penne of Great Bend, Kan., Lucille Clark of Vale, Janice Long of Caldwell and Joyce Rogers of Sheridan, Ore. All were dressed similar to the matron of honor in white nylon over pastel shades of pink, green, orchid and yellow taffeta.

A young cousin of the bride, Cheryl Ann Carey of Prineville, was flower girl, and candles were lighted by the bride's sister and brother, Barbara and David Girvin.

Dean Sisson served as best man for his brother, while ushers were Dennis Spitz, Paul Yadin, Bill Looney and Howard Girvin, a brother of the bride.

A reception followed at the parish hall. Assisting were aunts of the bride, Mrs. Blaine Girvin of Vale, Mrs. Bob Magnuson of New Plymouth, Mrs. Evan Ross of New Plymouth and Mrs. Leo Tschida of Ontario.

The wedding cake was cut and served by Joan Evins, punch was served by Linnea Dyas and coffee poured by Mrs. Magnuson. Bobbie Johnson and Carolyn McLaughlin accepted and placed the gifts and DeVonna Carey of Prineville registered the guests.

For the couple's wedding trip to Yellowstone park, the new Mrs. Sisson wore a blue sheath dress with white accessories. She is a graduate of Vale Union

Garden Club Plans Nursing Home Patio

Mrs. R. H. Young was hostess July 11 to ANK Garden club members for a 9:30 breakfast meeting at her home in Parma. Mrs. Gertrude Gough assisted.

Following the business session, 20 members toured Mrs. Young's garden to view the many varieties of day lilies.

Mrs. M. L. Judd announced that 12 pounds of vegetable seed had been sent to Ethiopia from six Malheur county garden clubs as part of their garden for world friendship efforts. This amount of seed was possible because of the generosity of the Dessert Seed company of Nyssa.

Club members voted to register flower exhibits at the county fair.

It was also announced that encouraging cooperation is being given the ANK club in building a patio for patients in the nursing home wing of Malheur Memorial hospital.

Next meeting will be a 9:30 breakfast session Aug. 8 in Boise, after which the club will tour the Winston Roberts gladioli garden.

Mrs. Viola St. John of Hermiston visited Saturday with Mrs. Ronald Batt.

high school and attended Oregon State university. The bridegroom will practice teach this fall and complete his education at OSU during the remainder of the year. They are making their home in Nyssa during the summer.

Among out-of-town guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Anna Harris of Prineville; her grandfather, John Girvin of Ontario and the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi W. Sisson of Twin Falls, Idaho.
