

Fruitland Rites Unite Miss Rice, George Dohner

Miss Eleanor Rice, daughter of Mrs. H. E. Rice of El Monte, Calif., and George Dohner of the Nu Acres community were united in marriage Friday, July 14, 1961, in Fruitland First Methodist church.

The Rev. Rex Lindemood performed the ceremony and the couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. James Hartman of Nu Acres.

The bride chose for her wedding a beige and gold ensemble with matching accessories.

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Mikesell at New Plymouth. A wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Alberta Mikesell, centered the serving table.

Guests attending the reception included Messrs. and Mmes. Harold Dohner and Richard of New Plymouth, Jay Hallack, Don Hallack and three children, Dick Embler and children, James Hartman and son, the Rev. Lindemood and Bob Embler.

The new Mrs. Dohner attended Southern California college at Costa Mesa. Her husband attended the University of California at Davis.

Mrs. Dohner has been employed for the past eight years at California Institution for Women at Corona and is presently correctional supervisor of the institution.

She plans to resign her position in late September and will return to the Nu Acres community where her husband is engaged in farming.

Methodist Church Candlelight Rites Unite Carol Adams, Richard Hoefler

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoefler

—Portrait by Schoen.

Miss Carol Adams became the bride of Richard Hoefler of Moscow, Idaho, in a candlelight ceremony performed July 15, 1961, by the Rev. Paul Ludlow in Nyssa Methodist church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Adams of route 1, Nyssa, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoefler of Eugene, Ore.

The double-ring rites were performed in the presence of 125 relatives and friends, before a setting of lighted tapers and large baskets of white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of lace and white satin, designed and made by her mother. A crown of seed pearls held her shoulder-length veil and she carried a cascade of pink roses.

Miss Marlene Adams attended her sister as maid of honor, and another sister, Dee Ann Adams, was bridesmaid. Both wore identical street-length gowns of turquoise cotton embroidered satin and carried bouquets of white gladioli.

Miss Dianne Maulding was soloist, accompanied by Miss Mary Lou Lancaster, who also played traditional wedding music. The Misses Cheryl Zesiger and Harriet Cleaver were candlelighters. Mrs. Wayne Adams was in charge of registering guests.

John Wilson of Boise served as best man, while James Hoefler, brother of the bridegroom and Wayne Adams, the bride's brother, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Adams wore a dress of cotton in wood violet with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a beige ensemble. Both wore white corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social hall. The bride's aunts, the Mmes. Loyd Adams, Robert Adams, Russell Talbot, Eugene Cleaver, Charles Davis and Harold Fivecoat, were in charge.

Mrs. Thurman Hill was in charge of gifts, assisted by Mrs. James Chamberlain, Miss Lynette Davis and Miss Marion Talbot, cousins of the bride.

The new Mrs. Hoefler is a graduate of Nyssa high school and attended College of Idaho. Her husband is a graduate of Boise Junior college and will complete his senior year at University of Idaho, where he is majoring in chemical engineering. The newlyweds will make their home at 328 South Lilly street in Moscow.

Special guests attending the wedding and reception were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Benson of Modesto, Calif. Other out-of-town guests included those from Roseburg, Madras, Eugene, Juntura, Ontario, Boise and Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Weeks attended a Kansas dinner Sunday at the Ernest Hook home in Caldwell.

YOUR FEET!

Portland, Ore. — "An ordinary foot discomfort due to bunions, calluses, hammer toes, arch and other troubles be helped without resort to artificial aids!" This is the problem Earl C. Bullock, Portland, has set out to solve. Results are amazing. His 12-year tested invention, the Vimulator System of Foot Correction with its Six Magic Footsteps that can lead to a Lifetime of Foot Comfort, is now used by over 4,000 in Oregon and elsewhere. Read what E. J. Lee, Portland, writes: "I had foot trouble for 30 years, filled my shoes with expensive arch supports, but my feet got worse. Three years ago I began using the Vimulator. In two days my feet unbelievably stopped hurting and have never bothered me since. For lifting of this tremendous burden I paid less than I had paid for a pair of arch supports." Write for free 16-page booklet, "The Secret of Good Feet." No obligation. Write Mr. Bullock, % Bullock Vimulator Co., P.O. Box 4963, Portland 12, Ore. Mention nature of difficulty. Good Citizen
Good Neighbor

Your electronic postlamp not only enhances your own property, but brightens the neighborhood, provides reassuring extra illumination on dark nights. Guests coming to your home appreciate this extra mark of hospitality. It makes your home easier to find and protects visitors against accidental falls on steps, curbs or stray objects along their path.

You feel more secure when away from home knowing this yardlight will go on automatically at dusk, shut itself off at dawn. Light discourages prowlers and vandalism, gives an added sense of security all night long.

Put electronic postlamps at front walks and drives, patios and carport areas. Lengthen the hours of outdoor fun, beautify your property. Take advantage of Idaho Power's postlamp bargain to add this mark of citizenship and neighborliness now!
