Marilyn Lee Pratt and Clark Jaques United in Methodist Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Jaques

—Portrait by Schoen.

A 6:30 evening ceremony performed July 29, 1961, at Nyssa Methodist church united Miss Marilyn Lee Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Maze of 106 East Main, Nyssa, and Clark Whitney Jaques, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jaques of 733 Adrian boulevard, Nyssa.

The double-ring rites were performed by the Rev. Paul Ludlow in the presence of 100 invited guests, before a setting of large baskets of pink gladioli graced with nile green ribbon bows and flanked with nile green lighted tapers.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white lace over taffeta, fashioned with sabrina neckline. Her elbow-length veil was held by a crown of pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of red roses on a white bridal book.

Attending the bride were Miss Rosemary Roth as maid of honor; Mrs. Farrell Jones, sister of the bride as matron of honor; Miss Sharen Jaques, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Kent Ashby, the bride's aunt, as bridesmaids. They wore gowns of pink and nile green organza and carried baskets of gladioli and carnations tied with ribbon streamers to match their gowns.

Chuck Rieb served as best man while ushers were Neil Lundy, Charles Lundy, Jerry Myrick and Gary Jaques, the bridegroom's brother.

Ringbearer was Diana Patterson, niece of the bride. The Misses Elaine Smith and Louise Howard lighted the tapers. Soloist, Mrs. Dick Weymouth sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Miss Mary Lou Lancaster.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Maze chose a lavender afternoon dress. The bridegroom's mother wore an afternoon dress of teal blue. Both wore corsages of white orchids.

A three-tier wedding cake, frosted in white, pink and green and topped with miniature bride and groom, centered the refreshment table at a reception held in the church social hall. Miss Peggy Yost was in charge of the guest book and the Misses Carolyn Horn and Janet Maulding accepted and placed the gifts. Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. Stan Laye, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Dick Bones, the bride's cousin.

Following a wedding trip to central Oregon, the newlyweds will be at home on Walnut avenue in Nyssa until fall when they plan to go to Eugene where the new Mrs. Jaques will attend University of Oregon.

The new bride was a 1961 graduate of Nyssa high school. The bridegroom was graduated from Nyssa high in 1959 and attended the University of Oregon for one year. He is presently employed with J. R. Simplot company in Nyssa.

Among out-of-town relatives attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Daffer of Weiser, Idaho; Morris Harrison of Lewiston, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ramsey of Bend, Ore.; and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Williams of Vale.
