Dora Ware, Glen Henderson United In Methodist Candlelight Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Henderson

Miss Dora Ware became the bride of Glen Henderson June 23, 1961, in an evening candlelight ceremony in Nyssa Methodist church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ware and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Henderson, all of Parma.

The Rev. Paul Ludlow performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of 100 invited guests. Large baskets of white hydrangea and tall white tapers set the scene for the 8 o'clock evening ceremony.

Mrs. Gerald Russell, organist, played traditional wedding music and Miss Suzan Fairchild sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown, of her own design, of white silk mist with full train. Her veil of tulle was held in place with yellow blossoms. Her only jewelry was a locket, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible containing a bouquet of lavender-dyed roses, white mums and ribbon streamers.

Miss Norma Ware was her sister's maid of honor. Wearing a dress of yellow cotton and a rhinestone tiara headpiece, she carried a long-stemmed white rose. Bridesmaids, in lavender cotton, were Mrs. Vernon Ware, sister-in-law of the bride and Miss Donella Spencer. They also carried white roses. Candelights were Miss Renee Cleverly in yellow and Miss Jeanette Ware, the bride's youngest sister, in lavender.

Vernon Ware, brother of the bride, was best man, while ushers were Gary Woodie and Earl Ware, Jr., another brother.

Annie Holloway, the bridegroom's niece, was flower girl. She wore a dress of lavender embroidered nylon, white hat and carried a white basket. Ringbearer was Patrick Ware, the bride's youngest brother, who carried the rings on a heart-shaped pillow.

Mrs. Ware chose for her daughter's wedding a pink silk dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore pink lace over taffeta with pink accessories. Their corsages were of carnations.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church social hall, with Mrs. Siy Cutlers of New Plymouth, great-aunt of the bride, in charge of arrangements. She was assisted by Mrs. Cecil Evans and the bridegroom's sisters, Mrs. Bob Holloway, Mrs. Walter Ford and Mrs. Merilean Robbins.

The four-tier wedding cake, decorated by Mrs. Robbins, was cut and served by Mrs. Keith Richards and Mrs. Warren Butler, cousins of the bride. Mrs. G. A. Davidson, a sister of the bride-

Initiation Service Held for Members Of Eagles Auxiliary

Fraternal Order of Eagles auxiliary met Tuesday evening at Eagles hall with 26 members attending initiation rites for Mmes. Carlene Love, Maxine Bright, Cora Share and Ruth Cloninger.

During the brief business meeting, Madam President Elizabeth Peutz appointed Mary Lee Chadwick chairman of the Eagles' hearing aid program for needy children.

Mrs. Bright was winner of the regular door prize and Ruth Cloninger won the monthly prize. Margaret Bracken missed the jackpot award. Greta Broad and Barbara Sarazin served refreshments. Jo-Anne Holcomb and Pat Elliott furnished entertainment.

Next meeting, Sept. 5, will be the organization's back-to-school party. Members are asked to come in school regalia. Following the meeting, the drill team will meet and all interested in participating on the team are asked to attend. A new drill captain will be elected.

groom, poured punch, and coffee was served by a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Elmer Butler.

Gifts were received by Mrs. Ford and the Misses Sherrill Jean Robbins and Rebecca Davidson, nieces of the bridegroom.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Davidson and children of La Mesa, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holloway and family of Buhl, Idaho. Other guests attending were from Ontario, Fruitland, New Plymouth and Parma.

The new Mrs. Henderson was a 1961 graduate of Fruitland high school. The bridegroom was also graduated from Fruitland high with the class of 1957.

The newlyweds left, following the ceremony, on a honeymoon trip to Salt Lake City and are temporarily making their home on route 2, Parma.

Five O'clock Evening Rites Unite Miss Donna Lane and Jerry Myrick

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Myrick

Miss Donna Lane became the bride of Jerry Myrick Aug. 1, 1961, in a 5 o'clock evening ceremony performed by Judge Don Graham in his home at 212 Bowler avenue in Nyssa.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Dick W. Tensen of route 2, Nyssa, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myrick of 817 King avenue, Nyssa.

For the double-ring rites, Miss Lane chose a ballerina-length gown of white silk organza over taffeta, featuring embroidered flowers on bodice and skirt. Her veil of French illusion was held by a tiara of seed pearls. Her corsage was a large white orchid.

Mrs. Jim Jamieson, wearing a lavender sheath dress and corsage of white carnations, attended as matron of honor, while Burton Smith served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Tensen wore a white afternoon dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a white eyelet after-
