From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Shorty Made
No "Bones" About It

Folks thought it was a big joke when Shorty Johnson came back from Center City with a new St. Bernard for his kids.

And the truth was, Shorty did look kind of funny. The pooch practically filled the whole back seat of Shorty's car, and, when he let it out, it stood darn near as high as Shorty did!

But Shorty didn't mind the ribbing. As he explained, "I know I look pretty silly with a dog like this. But when you've got eight kids like I do, and you get 'em a dog, you get one big enough so they can all play with it at once!"

From where I sit, folks should "size up" a situation before jumping to conclusions. For example, because Shorty likes coffee, I used to feel he'd disapproved when I'd have a glass of beer. But after I got to know him, I realized he was a tolerant man—one who'd never think of challenging his neighbor's right to his own opinions. This attitude is typical of most of the folks in our town—one of the things that makes them so "dog-gone" wonderful!
