

Fair Products of County

BLAINE HOLLIDAY, vice president and general manager of Ore-Ida Frozen Food corporation, is explaining frozen food facts to Miss Liz Cray (Miss Russet) and Miss Judy Conway (Miss Malheur County) who are representing their county at Oregon State fair in Salem this week. The girls were amazed at the size of the Ontario plant and at the amount of products that are made in the county from 9000 acres of produce processed through the plant annually. The plant is operated 220 days each year. Holliday did his preliminary work at Utah State and finished his degree at Oregon State. He is a former county agent and is one of the most ardent boosters of Malheur county.
