

Ontario Emblem Club Conducts Initiation For Six New Members

Ontario Emblem club No. 192 held its first business meeting of the fall season Sept. 11 in the Elks temple.

Mmes. Norman Harp, George Vaughn, Sylvan E. Talbot, Ted Roots, Pauline McKenny and Walter A. Anderson were initiated into the organization.

Convention plans were discussed and additional information was given concerning the ritualistic contest. Washington and Oregon clubs are planning to hold open house at the convention to support Mrs. Homer (Nadine) Scott for fourth supreme vice president.

Boise Elkettes have issued an invitation to all Emblem members and wives of Elks to attend their annual play day Oct. 9.

Thank you letters were read from Supreme President Mrs. Robert Harris and Mrs. Homer Scott expressing their pleasure at the hospitality and courtesies extended them during their recent visit. A letter was also read from E. M. Hauser thanking the club for their annual scholarship to 4-H summer school and from the Oregon State Medical school for the gift of the wall-suspended operating lamp.

Members voted to sell Hawaiian trip tickets for the Elks lodge. A prize of $10 will be awarded to the lady selling the most tickets.

Mrs. Harvey Williams, state president, and Mrs. Claire Carter, marshal, will visit the club in November.

Next business meeting will be held Oct. 2 instead of Oct. 9 as previously planned. This change is due to supreme convention being held at that time in Las Vegas.

Beaverton Church Ceremony Unites Melva Joan Gowan, Leslie O. Hiatt

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie O. Hiatt

Miss Melva Joan Gowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gowan of Coos Bay, Ore., became the bride of Leslie O. Hiatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hiatt of Nyssa, in an 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony Aug. 19, 1961, at Southminster United Presbyterian church in Beaverton, Ore.

The double-ring rites were performed by the Rev. Gerald H. Wright amid a setting of white and pink gladioli arrangements and candelabra containing lighted tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a chapel-length gown of white tulle featuring a portrait neckline. The skirt was designed with an accordion pleated, lace-edged flounce. Her shoulder-length veil was held with a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and stephanotis on a white pearl Bible.

Mrs. Jerry Gowan of Eugene attended as matron of honor. She was attired in a pastel pink silk organza sheath dress accented with back self panels and matching hat. Her bouquet was a nosegay of pink roses and stephanotis.

Gary A. Jones of Nyssa served as best man, while ushers were Frankie Morris of Nyssa and Loren O'Gara of John Day.

Solos rendered by Mrs. Robert Hillier were "Ich Liebe Dich" and "Wedding Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gowan chose a two-piece dress of beige silk with brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue silk dress with white accessories. Both ladies wore corsages of white rosebuds.

A three-tier cake decorated with wedding bells graced the serving table at a reception held in the church social hall. Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. Louis de Moise and Mrs. Jesse Jennings, aunts of the bride, and Miss Barbara Cunliffe, sorority sister of the bride. Mrs. William Anderson, aunt of the bride, registered the guests. Mrs. Leonard Anderson and Mrs. Harry Anderson, also the bride's aunts, received and placed the gifts.

For her wedding trip to the coast and central Oregon, the new Mrs. Hiatt wore a red sheath dress with matching jacket, white accessories and white rosebud corsage.

The newlyweds are making their home in La Grande.
