

English Couple Visits Kuipers At Adrian Home

By Mrs. Gerald Mackey
ADRIAN—Mr. and Mrs. Peter D. Cottrell of Woking, Surrey, England, are visiting the Rev. and Mrs. G. J. Kuiper.

Mrs. Cottrell and Mrs. Kuiper have been friends since they were small children. During the war they spent their childhood days together in the Surrey town of Dorking, to which their father's London office was evacuated.

Prior to their marriage, Cottrell spent some time in Aden Colony, Saudi Arabia peninsula, as an accountant with Shell company of Aden. While there he traveled much in East Africa. He is now working for Lloyd's Bank in London. Recently Mrs. Cottrell was working in Fleet Street, London, which is the center of the newspaper world of Great Britain, but now is working with British Overseas Airways corporation in their London office in Piccadilly.

Both the Cottrells and Kuipers were married in the Royal Church of Kew, Surrey, England, within two years of each other. The Cottrells have been vacationing on the California coast, visiting in San Francisco and Los Angeles and had come to Adrian via Nevada and Utah. They will visit New York before their departure for Great Britain.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Patterson were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stam and family of Fruitland and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Webb were Sunday evening dinner guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Willis were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cook and Mrs. Nellie Lenieve at Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Winn visited last week with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Winn at the Tenax ranch above Lowman.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Toomb visited Friday evening at the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Parker.

Michael P. Barry Dies in Ashland At Age of 94 Years

Rosary was recited for Michael Phillip Barry Friday evening, Oct. 20, 1961, at O'Hair funeral home and funeral services conducted Saturday morning in Sacred Heart Catholic church at Klamath Falls, Ore., with Father Casey officiating. He succumbed Oct. 18, 1961, at his home in Ashland, Ore.

Mr. Barry was the father of Mrs. W. K. Wahlert and grandfather of Mrs. Charles Quinowski of Nyssa and had visited here on various occasions.

He was born March 12, 1867, in County Cork, Ireland, a son of Phillip and Hanora Duggan Barry. He came to America in 1883 and attended schools in New York for three years before coming to Oregon.

It is believed that he is the last of the men who came from southern Ireland to southern Oregon before the turn of the century.

He was married to May O'Neil on May 8, 1903, in Lakeview, Ore. They located west of Jordan Val-

H. E. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Piercy, Friday evening guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hutchinson of Burns and Mr. and Mrs. Mervil Hutchinson of Nyssa.

Saturday afternoon visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ausman were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Records of Boise and Mrs. McCormick. Sunday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Kessler Ausman of Ontario and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ausman and daughters, Linda and Kenneth Egbert of Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young of Portland are visiting this week with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mackey were Wednesday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Bowles of Portland and Ed Gray of Seattle at East Side cafe in Ontario.

Mrs. Pearl Brown of West Linn, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brown and family of Portland and Mrs. Cecil Gear of Point Comfort, Texas, are visiting their daughter and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Deffer and doing some pheasant hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Freel entertained at a dinner Friday evening. Guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Martin Kieso of Reedsport, Ore., Sam Davis of Caldwell and Bill Willis. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Kieso also visited their niece and cousin, Mrs. Gerald Mackey and family.

ley, Ore., in Guano Valley where they began their married life. Their place is still known as the Barry ranch.

In 1918 the family moved to Merrill, Ore., where they were in the sheep industry. In 1940 Mr. Barry retired from active business and at that time sold the largest band of sheep in Klamath county.

That same year the Barrys moved to the Ashland area where they had since resided.

At the age of 89 years Mr. Barry suffered seven broken ribs in ten places and a punctured lung in an accident while pruning trees. Following his injury, he remained in a hospital for 17 days and within a month's time was doing his own work again. Until he was 92 he kept a band of sheep.

Three years ago he suffered a stroke and had been in ill health since that time.

He was a lifetime member of Elks lodge and a member of Lady of the Mountain Catholic church in Ashland.

In addition to his widow of the home he is survived by three sons, Dan of Merrill, John of Medford and Emmett of Madras; five daughters, Mrs. Nellie Wahlert of Nyssa, Mrs. Nora Cashman of Merrill, Sister Mary Rosetta of

Second Grade Pupils Entertain at School With Parents' Teas

Mrs. Lucille Pett's second grade pupils held their mothers' tea Oct. 17. The program centered around a science unit on animals and insects. It consisted of songs, reports and a moving picture story made by the children. Also included on the program was a flannel board presentation in story and song of "The Three Billy Goats Gruff."

Approximately 25 guests were in attendance. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Alme Hendricks and Mrs. Lamar Orr, room mothers.

Miss Joan Howard's second grade students entertained their mothers Oct. 17 with a tea. Au-

Spokane, Mrs. Ettie Pair of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Nan O'Brian of San Leandro, Calif.

Other survivors include 17 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. One son, Tone, preceded him in death.

Interment was made in Mt. Calvary cemetery in Klamath Falls. Pallbearers were grandsons, Barry O'Conner, Jackie Barry, Billy Wahlert, Johnny O'Neil, Tommy and Michael O'Brian.

turn leaves was the theme of their program. The children gave reports using leaf puppets, sang songs and recited poetry. Rhythmic interpretation of leaves in summer and autumn concluded the program.

Refreshments were served by the room mothers.

Second grade classes in the primary school held their parents' tea Oct. 13.

A butterfly theme was carried out and a program was presented in the multi-purpose room featuring rhythm band numbers, songs, physical exercises and rhythm dances. A film, "The Monarch Butterfly," was viewed by parents and pupils.

Following the program, parents and students returned to their respective rooms and parents were introduced by their children. Refreshments were served by the room mothers.

Room mothers for Mrs. Eulah McConnell's room are Mrs. Frank Skeen and Mrs. Reed Ray.

Mrs. Opal Alcorn's room mothers are Mrs. Charles McCoy and Mrs. Gordon Williams. Mrs. Sada-moro also helped serve.

Room mothers who served in Mrs. Frances Bates' room were Mrs. Floyd Hale and Mrs. Gerald Moore.

Autumn Theme Used For Program at Tea

Mrs. Mary Thompson's third grade pupils carried out a theme of "Autumn in Our Community" at their Oct. 18 mothers' tea.

Nineteen mothers and several small children were present for the program which was based on the students' social studies.

Several reports, a choral reading and two piano selections were given. Mrs. Bill Stringer and Mrs. Norbert Sarazin, room mothers, served refreshments of cookies and punch.
