Nyssa FFA Chapter To Host District Leadership Meeting

Miles Flake, FFA Reporter
 Nyssa FFA chapter members will be host to the Snake River district leadership conference here today. Officers and advisers from FFA chapters will be present from Halfway, Baker, Vale, Adrian and Ontario.

Purpose of the conference is to upgrade leadership abilities of local chapter officers within the district.

Officers of the state association of Future Farmers of America will conduct the meeting with vocational agricultural instructors sitting in as advisers.

Presiding will be Don Reed of Halfway, president; Bill Blatchford of Hillsboro, vice president; Irvin Jones of Corvallis, secretary; Dwight Cummings of Central (Independence), treasurer; Lynn Reagan of Vale, reporter; Ernie Bold of Phoenix, sentinel.

It is estimated that approximately 60 boys will be in attendance for the meeting, with schedule of activities to start at 1 p.m. in Nyssa high building. The boys will attend both general and group meetings until about 3 p.m., at which time they will sit in on a student body assembly when State President Reed will speak.

At 4 p.m. the entire group is scheduled to tour the local sugar factory. A dinner is planned for the visitors at 5:30 and continued business sessions are slated during the evening hours.

Upon returning to their local chapters, the groups of officers will take a state officer with them to sit in on local meetings and speak at various sessions and dinners.

The entire leadership conference will be over officially Saturday morning.
