From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Clock Watcher

Nothing in the world is more discouraging than a guest who doesn't know when to go home — especially if you have to get up as early as Chub Jackson, our local milkman.

right up and said, "Gosh, you're right! It is getting late!"

From where I sit people who have respect and consideration for other folks' feelings never outstay their welcome. One of my neighbors, for example, prefers other beverages to beer, yet when he drops over he never objects if I have a glass of beer while he enjoys his coffee. It's thoughtfulness like this that keeps friendships from "tiring out."
