State President Conducts Initiation At Nov. 13 Meeting of Emblem Club

Mrs. Harvey H. Williams of Portland made her official visitation Nov. 13 to Ontario Emblem club. Mrs. Williams, president of Oregon State Association of Emblem clubs, conducted initiation for 10 new members. They are Mmes. Howard Quast, James McHargue, Leon Peterson, Don B. Ridener, Howard Towell, Eugene Guthrie, Don French, Clayton Husfloen, Arden Steinkier and Miss Elaine Clancy.

Mrs. Lamont Fife acted as state marshal in the absence of Mrs. Gail Carter of Portland. A special number was sung for the visiting official by the choir.

The charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Cora Howe, departed sister of the local club. The Emblem choir sang and the eulogy was given by Mrs. Conley Davis.

Reports on the recent convention in Las Vegas were given by Mrs. Leo Sears, Mrs. Bert Anderson and Mrs. Fife. The latter also gave a report on her recent visitation to Lakeview, Ore., where she installed a new officer.

Mrs. Williams spoke to the group on her motto: "Look to the horizons for more charity, more new clubs and more patriotism to our country." She stated that the clubs of Oregon have raised $1400 toward another mobile physical therapy unit and have already replaced the first unit which had been in use for some time.

She asked members to think of the words of the pledge of allegiance to the flag, symbol of the club, and to thank God that they are Americans living in a free country. She had met with Dr. Schwartz recently in California and said he warned that the communists fight against unity, try to infiltrate unions, schools and neighborhood clubs, organizations and stir up the colored question. All should beware of the agitator, she added.

The state president was honored at a cocktail party and no-host banquet preceding the meeting at Elks temple. Mrs. Fife acted as mistress of ceremonies and introduced Harvey Williams, husband of the official visitor. The Emblem choir sang two comical numbers in costume, "Side by Side" and "Goofus."
