Lancaster Services Conducted Saturday At Nazarene Church

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Josephine Lancaster were conducted at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Nov. 25, 1961, at Nyssa Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Omar Barnhouse officiating. She succumbed at her home Thursday, Nov. 23, following an extended illness.

Mrs. Lancaster was born Oct. 18, 1933, at Iowa Falls, Iowa, came west to Halfway, Ore., in 1942 and in 1949 moved to Nyssa with her foster mothers, Miss Gertrude Allmon and Miss Marie Coate.

At the age of seven years she was united with the Nazarene church and in recent years worked with pre-school children in the church. A memorial gift, a communion table, is being presented by her family and friends to the Nyssa church.

She was graduated from Nyssa high school in 1951 and attended Northwest Nazarene college in Nampa for one year.

She was united in marriage Sept. 18, 1953, to Dean Lancaster who survives in addition to a son, Michael of the home.

Other survivors include her father, George Lawson of Nyssa; two brothers, George Lawson, Jr., of Independence, Mo., and Jon

Al Thompson of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Walters of Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walters and Miss Karen Clucas.
