Nysson Participates In Winter Training At Base in Germany

Army Pvt. Bobby D. Cordova participated in the Third Armored division's month-long winter training exercises in Grafenwohr, Germany, which ended Feb. 7.

High point of the Spearhead division's annual training cycle, the training included day and night tactical exercises emphasizing cold weather training, mobility and chemical, biological and radiological warfare. An essential part of the training was range firing of individual and team-served weapons including the army's new M-60 machine gun and the 105 and 120-millimeter tank guns.

A major element of NATO forces in Europe, the Third plays an essential role in maintaining world peace.

Cordova, a communications specialist in Headquarters detachment in the division's 45th Medical battalion in Frankfurt, entered the army in April 1961, completed basic training at Fort Riley, Kan., and arrived overseas last October.

He attended Nyssa high school and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cordova of 811 Ehrgood avenue, Nyssa.
