Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Bremerton, Wash., spent the weekend at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Webb. They were enroute home from a vacation trip through the southern states.

DAUGHTER BORN SUNDAY TO CHRISTENSEN COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Christensen (nee Joy Peterson) are parents of a daughter born Sunday morning in the LDS hospital at Salt Lake. The Christensens have another daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Peterson went to Salt Lake last week to visit their daughter and family. While in Utah they attended the NCAA basketball tournament at Provo and saw Oregon State defeat Pepperdine.

Peterson returned home Monday and Mrs. Peterson remained for a longer visit with the Christensen family.

A salt gulf existed in Germany as far back as the 10th century.

County Extensionists Plan Spring Festival Set at Nyssa April 14

Plans are being made for the 1962 Spring Festival of Malheur county extension units, according to Mrs. Norman Taylor, publicity chairman for the county committee. The festival will be held on April 14 in Nyssa high school cafeteria.

Guest speaker will be Esther Tasherud, coordinator of home extension programs. This year's slogan is "New Dimensions in Extension."

An extension queen will be chosen and honored during the one-day festival. A scholarship will also be awarded to a Malheur county student.
