Nazarene Children Presented Awards At Caravan Program

Nyssa Church of the Nazarene held its Caravan award program Sunday evening at the church.

Forty-five Caravan children and guides, in uniform, marched from the rear of the sanctuary, led by Orville and Cheryl Anderson, color bearers. Immediately following them were Trail Blazers Terry Martin and Lonnie Barnhouse playing "God of Our Fathers" on their trumpets and accompanying the marching group.

The program included scripture verses given from memory by the Trail Tots. The Braves and Maiden children gave a devotional demonstration. A brass instrumental selection was presented by six Trail Blazer boys. The Pathfinders presented "Why We Should Be Church Members."

Children who became new members included Delores Conner, Rodney Rhoades, Roy Belveal, Cindy Price and Louise Pattee.

Awards, to be worn on their scarves, were presented to most of the children participating. Special recognition was given to Dianne Wilson, Lonnie Barnhouse and Joe Hobson, Jr., for having completed enough work to begin the last phase of Caravanning in the advanced Pathfinder and Trail Blazer groups.

The Rev. Omar Barnhouse presented bronze service cross pins to guides who had served more than three years. Receiving these awards were Mrs. Violet Clarkson, Mrs. Janice Wilson and Miss Carol Clarkson.

Local Ladies Attend WSCS District Meet

Mmes. Kinsey Keveren, Paul Ludlow, W. W. Foster, Maurice Corey, Dave Beers, Sherman Wilson, Clarence Fritts and Roy Knoedler attended the Western district Women's Society of Christian Service meeting March 29 at Whitney Methodist church in Boise.

One hundred and seventy ladies, representing area societies from Prairie City, Ore., to Twin Falls, Idaho, were in attendance.

Introduced were retired missionaries, Dr. and Mrs. I. L. Shaver of Caldwell, who served in Japan, and Miss Celia Cowan, who served in China and Africa. These resident missionaries have a combined 112 years of active service in foreign fields.

Mrs. Keveren, district supply secretary, presented certificates to her grandson, Phillip Kay Keveren, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Keveren, and to Kevin Dean McNeil, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert McNeil, all of Vale.

Mrs. Floyd Hill of La Grande, district secretary of promotion, will represent the western district at the sixth assembly of Methodist Women when it convenes in Atlantic City during May.

NAZARENE YOUTH GROUP ATTENDS ANNUAL MEETING

The 32nd annual district convention of Nazarene Young Peoples' society was held April 2-3 in the First Nazarene church in Nampa. The Rev. Omar Barnhouse of Nyssa was in charge of activities.

The meeting was climaxed with a banquet served Tuesday evening in the new student union building on the campus at Northwest Nazarene college.

Elected delegates from the Nyssa church included Sandra Hobson, Shirley Seward, Connie Price and Linda Reece.

MEMBERS OF THE CRUSADER CHOIR from Northwest Nazarene college in Nampa will appear Sunday morning at Nyssa Church of the Nazarene. The students will spend the entire 11 o'clock worship service presenting their message in song, prior to a tour of the Northwest.

Crusader Choir To Sing Sunday At Local Church

The Crusader choir of Northwest Nazarene college will present a sacred concert at 11 a.m. Sunday, April 8, at Nyssa Church of the Nazarene.

This 30-voice choir will be leaving NNC campus Saturday, April 14, for an extended tour through Oregon and Washington, singing in such cities as Vancouver, Yakima, Kirkland and Seattle.

The college music department has three active choirs plus a Madrigal group. The Crusader choir is a select group with a prerequisite of a year in either of the other choirs.

Director Tippitt is tenor soloist with a full schedule of Nazarene camp meetings throughout the summer. He will be choir director and soloist for the Northwest Illinois; Columbus, Ohio; Southwest Oklahoma and Idaho-Oregon camps this summer.

The entire morning worship service at the local Nazarene church will be used for their singing. The public is invited, the Rev. Omar Barnhouse announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Smith visited Sunday with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Smith in Caldwell. They also helped their granddaughter celebrate her birthday anniversary.

ADRIAN MARINERS GROUP SLATES SUNDAY MEETING

Adrian Anchor Mariners group will hold a planning meeting Sunday, April 8, at 2:30 p.m. in the Jim Phifer home, according to Mrs. Jake Borge, a member of the organization.

This group has been inactive since the first of the year and would like to start again with as many new members as possible, Mrs. Borge said.

The Sunday meeting is for the middle-aged group as they will Live it up!

Presenting the cars for the lively life: 3 New Lively Ones from Ford!

New Galaxie 500 XL!

Start this one and you really start something. Available with Thunderbird V-8 power up to 405 hp (coupled to a 4-speed stick shift), the XL outperforms America's most expensive cars. Standard features include all-new bucket seats with a Thunderbird-style console in between. The XL needs service only twice a year, or every 6,000 miles. Hardtop or convertible. Definitely not for pedestrian tastes!

New Falcon Sports Futura!

Here's a hot new number from the compact leader. The tempo starts fast with foam-padded bucket seats and a handy console in between . . . hits a new high note with a stylish new Thunderbird roof (vinyl-covered if you want it) . . . then goes into the lively melody of an optional 170 Special Six engine. Economy with a flair is the Sports Futura idea . . . it's priced below many standard compacts.

FORD

New Fairlane 500 Sports Coupe!

Don't flirt with this one unless you mean it. It has foam-padded bucket seats with a console in between . . . and an all-new optional "260" Challenger V-8 that packs 164 hp. Fairlane's room, ride and performance are bigger in every way, but this new fine car costs less than many compacts.
