Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnes and Todd of Vale, Mrs. Glenn Marcum and children, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Huffman were Easter dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul House and family.

HEALTH DISCUSSIONS HELD BY FIFTH GRADE 4-H CLUB

Students in Mrs. Hazel Lane's fifth grade room held their fifth 4-H meeting on April 9. Flag salute and 4-H pledge were led by Alex Sutschkow and Billy Timmons.

Lesson of the day was on daily foods needed in regular diet. Members of the class kept a three-day record of foods they had eaten and the group compared individual records and made suggestions as to how daily meals might be improved.

Sixth meeting of the club was held April 12. Christine McEwen led the flag salute and Susan Bratton gave the 4-H pledge.

Lesson was on communicable diseases. Roll call was answered by telling what immunizations were needed by each member.

A record of immunizations was written in each individual 4-H booklet and reports were given on communicable diseases.

OSU Science School Honors Program Lists Three Local Students

Three students from Nyssa are in the school of science honors program this year at Oregon State university. They include Sandra J. Lewis, Harlan R. Sager and Michael B. Wilson.

Under the program, students are enrolled in honors sections in several departments, do extra work such as special readings, research and seminars, and take some special classes throughout their college careers. At graduation they receive diplomas that indicate honors in their specific fields.

To be eligible for the honors program, a freshman must have ranked in the top 20 percent of his or her high school graduating class, have all A or B grades in science and mathematics courses and have the recommendation of the high school principal or science teacher.

ATTEND EASTER CANTATA

Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Flinders and Gail were Sunday evening dinner guests of the Lorin Saunders family in Boise. They later attended a special Easter cantata, "The Resurrection," presented by the combined 11th and 16th LDS wards of Boise.

Students in the program are expected to maintain an overall grade average of B if they are to continue in the program.

According to Dr. C. L. Anderson, chairman of the OSU faculty committee, the honors work has drawn enthusiastic support from students and faculty alike.

Parents of the local students in the honor program are Mr. and Mrs. Grant Lewis, formerly of Nyssa, now residing in Caldwell; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sager, 17 North Ninth street, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wilson, 807 Adrian boulevard.

Consistent performance with KT 6

Year after year, more farmers are planting Northrup King's KT 6. And here's why: KT 6 is a phenomenal hybrid. It has a tremendously wide area of adaptation, and does particularly well in our area. It has long, fast-drying ears with excellent shellout. It is medium-tall, leafy and very strong-stalked. Grows on practically all soils. KT 6 has proved to be one of NK's workhorse hybrids. It's a corn you can count on. Order some today.
