—Portrait by Schoen.

Nyssa Methodist church was the scene of an 8:30 o'clock evening ceremony Saturday, May 26, 1962, uniting Marlene Ione Adams and LeRoy Morris.

The new bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Adams of route 1, Nyssa. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris of 415 South Eighth street in Nyssa.

Before a setting of basket arrangements of white iris adorned with turquoise bows and lighted tapers, the Rev. Paul Ludlow performed the double-ring rites in the presence of 175 invited guests. Vocal selections were rendered by Miss Ann Powell and Mike Staggs, accompanied by Mrs. Kinsey Kevenen.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned by her mother, featuring fitted lace bodice and triple-pleated organza skirt over satin. Her four-layer net bouffant veil was held by a wedding-cake crown. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of pink roses, white carnations and white ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Richard Hoefler attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Dee Ann Adams, the bride's sister, and Miss Delores Morris, the bridegroom's sister. They all wore identical deep turquoise sheath gowns, wedding ring hats, white accessories and carried crescent-shaped bouquets of pink carnations.

Frankie Morris served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Wayne Adams and Leland Morris, brothers of the newlyweds. Candlelighters were the Misses Harriett Cleaver and Lynette Davis, wearing white gowns with turquoise accessories.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Adams wore a lace gown of dusty rose, ivory accessories and a corsage of talisman roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a rose faille ensemble with white accessories and wore a pink carnation corsage.

A three-tier pink and white wedding cake, topped with satin wedding bells, graced the refreshment table at a reception held following the ceremony in the church social hall. The table was covered with a hand-crocheted cloth over pink. The hall was decorated with baskets of iris, peonies and wedding bells.

Serving refreshments of wedding cake, coffee and punch were Mrs. Loyd Adams, Mrs. Robert Adams, Mrs. Allen Jones and Mrs. John Adams. They were assisted by Mmes. Charles Davis, Eugene Cleaver, Rolland Holmes, Cecil Benson and Russell Talbot.

Gifts were received and placed by Mrs. Jim Chamberlain and Mrs. Thurman Hill, assisted by the Misses Nancy Hill, Josephine Mendazona, Joyce Cleaver, Richard Adams, Marcie and Darlene Hill. Miss Karen Mitchell was in charge of corsages and Miss Cheryl Zesiger registered guests.

For their wedding trip to Cherry Creek resort, the bride wore a pink suit dress with black patent accessories.
