

Over 100 Contestants Enter Rodeo Events

A parade preceded the Friday and Saturday evening performances. Entries included riding groups, floats, a local band and members of civic organizations. There were no parade prizes given this year.

Members of Owyhee Riding club, sponsoring organization, report that they were well pleased with the evening crowds and stated that they thought all three performances were excellent. The sponsors have asked the Journal to express their appreciation to all area residents who helped in any way to make the annual rodeo a success.
