Bethel 33 Installs Miss McPartland As Queen in 'Book of Gold' Ceremony

Miss Kathleen McPartland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McPartland, was installed honored queen of Bethel 33, International Order of Job's Daughters, in an impressive ceremony June 12, 1962, in the Masonic hall.

Candlelighters were Sherry Hust and Wanda Handley. "The Book of Gold" with Pam McPartland as angel was narrated by Patricia Wright as each officer signed her name in the book.

The Bible was escorted into the Bethel by Bonnie House, Jan Rinehart and Mary Lou Lancaster. Dianne Maulding sang "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Barbara McPartland at the piano. The flag was presented and tributes were given.

Junior Past Honored Queen Mary Kay Olsen was installing officer of the evening. She was assisted by Jan Rinehart, guide; Mary Lou Lancaster, marshal; Gloria Gonyer, chaplain; Barbara McPartland, musician; Pat Marcum, junior custodian; Dianne Maulding, senior custodian; Helen Winter, recorder.

Installed into elected offices were Kathleen McPartland, honored queen; Judy Mackey, junior princess; Carolyn Lowe, marshal.

Appointed officers included Vicki Maxfield, chaplain; Cookie Cole, treasurer; Lynda Cundall, musician; Linda Morrison, recorder; Marilyn Pond, librarian; Bonnie Steiner, first messenger; Marilyn Gonyer, second messenger; Linda Wilson, third messenger; Delores Morris, fourth messenger; Carolyn Pond, fifth messenger.

Junior Bethel officers are Mary Danford, chaplain; Karen Main, musician; Florene Kyger, treasurer; Jan Gregg, recorder; Trudy Olsen, librarian.

Messengers: Cille Tracy, first; Cindy Tracy, second; Laura Mackey, third; Teresa Hamilton,

KATHLEEN MCPARTLAND ... New Honored Queen

fourth; Sheila Huffman, fifth; Cheryl Wilson, inner guard; Diane Jennings, outer guard; Jane Timmerman, junior custodian and Linda McPartland, senior page.

Mary Kay Olsen presented Miss McPartland an honored queen's pin and Kathleen presented Mary Kay with a past honored queen's pin. Kathleen was also presented an honored queen's tiara and she presented Judy Mackey with a junior princess tiara.

Mary Kay then escorted Kathleen to the altar to sign the Bible while Judy Wilson sang "I Walk With God," accompanied by Barbara McPartland.

Miss McPartland was escorted and presented her sister Kathleen with a gavel, a gift from her family. Worthy Matron Katherine Brendle presented her a gift from Golden Rule chapter 131, Order of Eastern Star. Guardian Louise Wernick was escorted and presented a gift from Mary Kay Olsen and also one from the Bethel. Mary Kay presented the Bethel a gift of several sets of salt and pepper shakers.

Guardians Louise Wernick and Betty Hall, Bethel 25, Ontario; George White, Jr., master councillor; Greg Sumner, chaplain; Bob Sweetland, senior councillor of the Owyhee chapter of DeMolay, Ontario; Worthy Matron Katherine Brendle and Worthy Patron Geo. White, Sr., of Star chapter 69, Ontario.

Serving refreshments were Mrs. Walter McPartland, Mrs. Vera Olsen and Mrs. Louise Wernick. Pink and white colors were carried out in table decorations and centered with two bouquets of pink roses.

Others assisting were Nancy Quast, who registered the guests; Sandra Holmes, programs; Lucille White, flowers; Irene Wilson, flag-bearer.

Pink and Blue Shower Honors Mrs. Robbins And Infant Daughter

Kaylene Marie Robbins and her mother, Mrs. Norville Robbins, were honored guests at a shower given June 13 at the home of Mrs. Merildean Robbins.

The gift table was centered with a pink and blue stork standing over a cradle-shaped cake, complete with frosted chenille spread and monogrammed pillow. Flower arrangements carried out the color scheme.

Many feminine gifts were presented to the infant who joins three brothers.

Mrs. Harold Kurtz directed games for the 30 ladies in attendance. Out-of-state guests were Mmes. Charles Wilson of Juneau, Alaska; Harold Torgerson of Wyndeman, N.D.; Thomas Ernschell of Missoula, Mont.

Special guests were Kaylene's grandmothers, Mrs. Lester Robbins and Mrs. J. R. Winchell.

'Lenora' Is Name Given WSCS Circle By Methodist Ladies

Mrs. Orland Cheldelin was hostess last Thursday for 11 WSCS members. Attending as guests were Mmes. Lloyd Topliff, S. C. McConnell and Harriet Pennie.

Mrs. Russell Gressley led devotions and presented the program entitled "Facing the Challenge in Missions."

Chairman Mrs. Maurice Corey presided at the business meeting, at which time Mrs. Cheldelin was elected vice chairman. Mrs. Gressley was named secretary and Mrs. Dave Beers, treasurer. Representatives were appointed to serve on society committees for the year.

As this is the 75th anniversary of Methodist deaconess work, the ladies voted to become the "Lenora" circle, honoring a newly commissioned deaconess, Miss Lenora Mildred Sykes of Parma, Mich., who will be director of Christian education in Lansing, Mich.

Barbara Eileen Hardesty, Silas Day United in Sunday Evening Home Rites

NEWLYWEDS MR. and MRS. SILAS DAY ... Flanked by Mr. and Mrs. Billy Day, Attendants

An evening ceremony performed at 7:45 o'clock June 10, 1962, in the Claude Day home at Adrian united Miss Barbara Eileen Hardesty and Silas Day.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hardesty of Ontario. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Day.

An archway decorated with white bells, blue and white streamers, flanked with large basket arrangements of white peonies, blue stock and gladioli, provided the setting for the Sunday evening ceremony. The Rev. Gerard J. Kuiper of Adrian Presbyterian church performed the double-ring rites in the presence of 35 family members.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of chantilly lace over net and slipper satin. Her fingertip-length veil was held by a small crown of pearls. On a small satin-covered Bible she carried a corsage of white flowers and blue streamers containing small blue blossoms. Her hair was styled by her cousin, Miss Pat Walker of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Day attended the couple.

Duplicate Bridge Group Plans Master Point Night

Eagles duplicate bridge session was held Monday evening in the Eagles hall under direction of Roy Nishizaki with six tables in play.

North-south winners were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pace, first; Mrs. Houston Wilson and Nishizaki, second; Mrs. Ray Russell and Mrs. Bert Lienkaemper, third.

Winners for the east-west group were Mrs. Lyle Miner and Harry Miner, first; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fangen, second; Mrs. Jessie Morgan and Mrs. Artie Robertson, third.

Next session will be held Monday, June 25, and will be master point night.

A three-tier white wedding cake, trimmed with white bells, pink and blue roses and topped with miniature bride and groom, graced the serving table at a reception held following the ceremony.

Assisting at the reception were the bridegroom's aunts, Mrs. James Ritchie and Mrs. Howard Day. Susan and Mark Hardesty, sister and brother of the bride, and Diane Needham had charge of the guest book and gifts.

For her going-away ensemble, the bride wore a white summer suit with white accessories and the corsage which she carried on a Bible during the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Day was graduated in May of this year from Vale high school. Her husband attended Adrian high school and is presently employed by Towell's Repair service in Vale.
