

Walter-Saunders Nuptials Performed In Nazarene College Church at Nampa

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Saunders

A 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony performed June 2, 1962, by the Rev. Eugene Stowe in College Church of the Nazarene in Nampa, united Miss Edith Anne Walter and Kenneth E. Saunders.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley O. Walter of Nampa. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Saunders of route 2, Parma.

Amid a setting of Margarite daisies and white gladioli, the double-ring rites were conducted in the presence of 200 invited guests. Among them were those from Minnesota, Kansas, Washington, Oregon and Idaho.

Vocal selections were rendered by Miss Shirley Huikko and Meredith Mortimer, accompanied by Mrs. Tom Waller.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a princess-style gown of silk organza over tulle, designed with wide lace Bertha collar and chapel train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of pearls. She carried a

Emblem Club Women Attend State Meet; Six Ladies Initiated

Initiation was conducted for six new members at the June 11 meeting of Ontario Emblem club No. 192. They were Meses. Oren D. Shaw, Carl R. Swigart, Herbert Netcher, Lonnie B. Leavell, Charles Van Komen and Jackie D. Pressley.

A report on the recent rummage sale was given by President Mickey Wise in the absence of Mrs. Dave Stoner, chairman of the sale.

Members voted to assist with the tuberculosis x-ray unit which will be in Ontario during July. Any member who can help on July 19 is to call Mrs. George Warrington or President Wise.

Delegates to the state convention last week in Portland included Meses. Arie Smit, Leo Sears, Glenn Strawn, George Warrington, Merle Jensen, Al Shaw, Bill Hoyle, Lloyd Smith, Ernie Cartwright, Don Ridener and Elinor Atteberry.

Named as alternates were Meses. Pauline McKinney, Ted Hoots, Zena Fritts and John Acaiturri.

Attractive covers for small packages of Kleenex, with tissues included, were given to convention guests by the Ontario club. Mrs. Don Daws made the favors with Mrs. Wayne Farry aiding in final preparations.

During the convention, the ritual team entered competition for the third time, hoping to retain permanently the trophy they had won the past two years.

Last meeting of the summer will be a patio party at the home of Mrs. Wise in Payette. Members planning to attend should contact Mrs. Wise, Mrs. Loye Frakes or Mrs. Robert Frazier before the scheduled date.

The new Mrs. Saunders is a graduate of Northwest Nazarene college with a home economics major. Her husband will be a senior at NNC next year and is currently with a National Guard unit at Ft. Lewis, Wash.

The newlyweds will make their home in Tacoma, Wash., this summer and plan to return to Nampa in the fall.

Anna Cartwright and Larry Berglund Wed in Saturday Church Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Berglund

White floral arrangements and lighted tapers provided an altar setting in Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd at Pocatello during a Saturday evening wedding ceremony uniting Anna Lucille Cartwright and Larry Edward Berglund.

The rites were performed at 8:30 o'clock June 2, 1962, by Pastor John Baglien. Miss Karen Camerud, soloist, was accompanied by Organist Mrs. John Sheard who also played traditional wedding music.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Robert Cartwright of route 2, Parma. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Victor Berglund of Shelby, Mont.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza over satin. The pearl-trimmed bodice was designed with scoop neckline, pointed waistline and long tapered sleeves. The skirt was fashioned with small front gathers and back accent of pleats and roses.

Her elbow-length veil of net was secured by a crown of pearls. On a white prayer book she carried a bouquet of white roses and ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Howard Malone of Parma attended her sister as matron of honor. Other attendants were the Meses Sharon O'Brien, Janice Haagensen and Diane Berglund, flower girl. All wore identical dresses of blue peau de soie designed with front scoop neckline tapering to a V in back, short sleeves and pleated skirts. Their hats were of fluffy blue net and they carried bouquets of large white blossoms and blue streamers.

Lowell Berglund attended his brother as best man. Other male attendants were Pat McGahan, Bob Lehmann and Karry Bruce Mouser, ring bearer. Lighting the tapers were Barry Berglund and Glenn Mouser.

A blue and white color scheme was also carried out at a reception held in the church basement following the ceremony. Assisting during the reception were Mrs. G. E. Mouser, Mrs. Lowell Berglund, Mrs. Mabel Vadnais, Mrs. Margaret Dumas, Miss Patty Jo Burley, Miss Lois Miller and Darwin Mouser.

The new Mrs. Berglund was graduated from Fruitland high school and has completed her sophomore year at Idaho State college in Pocatello, majoring in journalism.
