

Owyhee Community Church Service Unites Pauline Stephen, Robert Ewell

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Ewell

Miss Pauline Joyce Stephen and Robert Clarence Ewell were united in marriage at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 3, 1962, by the Rev. Arthur Skogan in Owyhee Community church.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stephen of route 2, Nyssa, are parents of the bride. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ewell of Springfield, Mass.

Music was provided by Larry Bennett at the organ. Margaret Tuning of Parma sang "How Great Thou Art," "The Christian Wedding Song" and "The Wedding Prayer."

For her wedding Miss Stephen chose a gown of white bridal satin designed with over-lace bodice, featuring V-neckline and long pointed sleeves. The full floor-length skirt contained applied lace medallions. Her fingertip veil was held by a small scalloped hat.

Miss Tuning attended as maid of honor while bridesmaids were Jennifer and Joanne Stephen. They were all attired in dresses of pink tulle, fashioned with full skirts and trimmed in lace.

Local OES Chapter Installs Penrods As Worthy Officers

Golden Rule chapter 131, Order of Eastern Star, held a regular meeting June 18 in the Masonic hall, with Worthy Matron Katherine Brendle presiding.

Ceremony of affiliation was given for Lois Williams. Mae Hussey, worthy matron of Star chapter 69, Ontario, was escorted and Martha Houston of Oasis chapter 33, Ajo, Ariz., was introduced.

Chapter officers performed an addendum honoring Harold and Katherine Brendle. Each placed a rose in a basket which was then presented to Mrs. Brendle and a rose bush was given to her husband.

An installation ceremony followed the business session. Past Worthy Matron Hazel Frost of Payette was installing officer of the evening. She was assisted by Past Worthy Matrons Marie Holmes, marshal; Pauline Mackey, chaplain; and Lola Guthrie, organist.

Elected officers installed were Laura Penrod, worthy matron; Paul Penrod, worthy patron; Thelma Huffman, associate matron; Ray Huffman, associate patron; Nora Graham, treasurer; Pat Marcum, conductress; Lois Cartwright, associate conductress.

Appointed officers include Elizabeth House, chaplain; Lois Williams, marshal; Jessie Brown, organist; Helen Webb, Adah; Veda Paulus, Ruth; Vera Olsen, Esther; Della Holmes, Martha; Amelia Pratt, Electa; George Cartwright, warder; Bill Webb, sentinel.

Job's Daughters of Bethel 33 sang two selections, "Mothers, Fathers and Guardians' Prayer" and "Over the Rainbow." Miss Dianne Maulding is Bethel choir director.

Newly installed officers gave an addendum honoring the new worthy matron and patron by each lighting a candle from the candle of service. Mrs. Huffman presented Mrs. Penrod with a worthy matron's Bible.

Following the installation ceremony, a reception was given under direction of Mrs. Louise Wernick and Mrs. Victoria Schweizer, refreshment committee members. Mrs. House and Mrs. Myrtle Alexander poured coffee and punch, while Mrs. Jack Penrod served the cake.

Special guests at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Penrod and sons of Pocastello, son and daughter-in-law of the newly installed worthy matron and patron.

Preceding the Monday evening meeting, Mrs. Brendle entertained with a buffet dinner for all retiring officers.

Linda L. Teague, Richard Gustavson Exchange Vows in Christian Church

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gustavson

—Portrait by Schoen.

Miss Linda Louise Teague became the bride of Richard Bartley Gustavson in a 2:30 o'clock afternoon ceremony performed Sunday, June 17, 1962, in Nyssa First Christian church.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. J. H. Teague and the late Mr. Teague of Dayton, Ore. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gustavson of Caldwell, Idaho.

Basket arrangements of pink rosebuds and white heliotrope, pink tapers in tall candelabra tied with lavender bows provided the setting for the single-ring rites performed by the Rev. Wallace Prowell in the presence of 90 invited guests. Decorations were arranged by Mrs. Robert Sherbert.

Mrs. Lester Oden, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Nancy Leavitt. Organ wedding music was provided by Mrs. Elvin Ballou.

Given in marriage by her brother, Jack Teague, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace and net over satin. Her fingertip-length veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls. On a white Bible she carried a bouquet of lavender cymbidium orchids and streamers of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Melvin Hunt attended her sister as matron of honor and wore a lavender tulle gown and pink carnation corsage. Susan Dewey, dressed in pink nylon and carrying a basket containing pink rose petals, attended a flower girl. Allen Gustavson served as best man, while ushers were Rollo Tanner and Glen Teague.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Teague wore a dress of pink lace and lavender carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a dress of lavender silk organza and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception was held in the church basement following the ceremony. Assisting with refreshments, gifts and guest registration were Mmes. Frank Holub, Earl Ward, Frances Bates, C. Grant Peterson, Ed Pruyn, Jerry Gyllenskog, Harold McEwen and Eugene Nelson. A tiered, square wedding cake decorated with pink roses and wedding bells graced the refreshment table, and with it, coffee and punch were served.

Out-of-state guests attending the wedding and reception included Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hunt and Michael of Falls Church, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gustavson of Caldwell, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gustavson and Tamera of Parma, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McEwen and Mrs. Eugene Nelson of Fruitland.

The new Mrs. Gustavson is a graduate of Nyssa high school and also of Payette Beauty college. Her husband was graduated from Nyssa high school and Molok Barber college. They are employed at Mildred's Beauty shop and Lyle Miner Barber shop, respectively.

Following a wedding trip to Payette lakes, they are now at home at 509 North Third street in Nyssa.

High Score Winners Told For Master Point Night

Seven tables of bridge were in play Monday evening during Eagles duplicate bridge session with Roy Nishizaki supervising the master point play.

North-south winners were Mrs. Houston Wilson and Dr. L. A. Maulding, first; Nishizaki and Mrs. Lyle Miner, second; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pace, third.

Tied for first and second places in the east-west group were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Larson, Mrs. Bill Fangen and Mrs. Bob Chatelain. Mrs. Howard Myrick and Mrs. Artie Robertson were third place winners.

VISIT FROM ROSEBURG
Mr. and Mrs. Harley Duus and Karen of Roseburg were weekend guests of V. W. Duus and Dolores. They had recently attended graduation exercises at Eastern Oregon college and were enroute to California.
