Miss Caroline Dillon, Orel Vern Hall Exchange Vows in Afternoon Nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. Orel Vern Hall

Wedding vows were exchanged at 3 o'clock in the afternoon Sunday June 24, 1962, by Caroline Dillon and Orel Vern Hall in Nyssa Nazarene church.

Basket arrangements of pink summer flowers, blue and white lighted tapers provided the setting for the double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Omar Barnhouse, assisted by the Rev. Sanford Wag of Vale.

Soloist was Miss Shirley Seward, accompanied by Mrs. George Dillon, sister-in-law of the bride. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dillon of Nyssa. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hall of Tygh Valley, Ore.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice was fashioned with scoop neckline and short sleeves. Her long wrist-length lace gloves matched her gown. Her waist-length veil was held by a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, red rosebuds and ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Robert Elmore attended her sister as matron of honor. She was attired in a gown of blue taffeta and white nylon and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and rosebuds.

Bridesmaids were Miss Hazel Dillon, another sister, and Miss Judith Wagg. They were dressed in pastel blue taffeta and wore pink carnation corsages. Debbie Alexander, also wearing pastel blue, attended as flower girl. Ring bearer was Jimmy John Wilson.

Ray Winters served as best man, while ushers were Robert Elmore, the bride's brother-in-law and George Dillon, her brother. The bride's mother was ill and unable to attend the ceremony. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Hall wore a pastel blue dress with white accessories and pink carnation corsage.

A reception honoring the couple was given following the ceremony in the Methodist social hall. Floral arrangements and a three-tier wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom, centered the refreshment table. Assisting with serving were Mrs. John Cole, Mrs. Walter Baker and Mrs. Inez Roske. Mrs. Ray Winters and Christine Winters accepted and placed the gifts, while Mrs. Lester Robinson was in charge of guest registration.

The new Mrs. Hall was graduated from Nyssa high school and Boise Junior college and also attended Eastern Oregon college in La Grande. She had taught at both Harper and Hines prior to her marriage.

Her husband is a graduate of Baker high school and Eastern Oregon college and is a teacher in the Prineville elementary school.

Following a wedding trip to the coast, the newlyweds are at home in Prineville.

Among the 75 invited guests attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Ramone Kittowski, Mrs. Mabel Ragsdale and Mrs. Fernina Crisp, all of Baker. They are uncle and aunts of the bridegroom.
