J. Bushong Named To Executive Post In Hawaiian School

An article, clipped from the Kamehameha, Hawaii newspaper and sent to Mrs. Maurice Corey by her daughter, Mrs. D. E. Martinez, told of the appointment of James Bushong as executive vice-president of the Kamehameha schools.

The appointment, one of two, climaxed a nationwide search of several months by the school trustees, conducted on recommendation of a survey completed at the end of last year.

Bushong was interviewed by the trustees recently and was consequently offered the executive vice-presidency. He returned to Michigan and wired his acceptance.

He has been superintendent of schools in Grosse Point, Mich., since 1951. From 1946 to 1950 he was head of schools at Bend, Ore., and from 1936 to 1939, he was

Upland Bird Book Available to Nimrods

Oregon upland game bird hunters as well as bird enthusiasts will like a new 44-page bulletin on Oregon's upland game birds, both native and exotic, just off the press.

Prepared by W. V. Masson and Robert U. Mace, upland game bird technicians for the game commission, the bulletin covers the history of upland game birds in Oregon, the information and management program, and a description and life history of each species. Illustrations are by artist Harold C. Smith.

The bulletin is published by the Oregon Game Commission, 1634 S. W. Alder, in Portland, and may be obtained from this agency free of charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Coburn and children of Boise spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Malloy.

NYSSANS RETURN HOME FROM TRIP TO SEATTLE

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dail and children and Miss Betty Glascock returned recently from a 10 day vacation trip to Seattle. While there they visited their sons, Gary and Jack who are employed at Boeing Aircraft.

They visited many points of interest including the Dominion Monarch, a large passenger ship used as a hotel for patrons of the World's Fair, several parks and recreation areas, the World's Fair and also took a trip to Vancouver, B. C.

During their stay in Seattle, they were guests of the Harold Sweet family, former Nyssans.

They returned home via Othello, Wash. where they visited the Roy Hoff and Monty Fraser families and also spent some time with Dail's cousin, Clyde Miller.
