

Parade Entry, Carnival, Calendars PTA Executive Board Meets to Plan

By Mrs. Waldo Smalley
APPLE VALLEY—First PTA executive meeting of the school year was held Monday evening in the gymnasium. Plans were made to enter a float in Old Port Boise Days. Parade and carnival plans were discussed.

Committee members will be attempting to contact all families in the community within the next few days concerning birthday calendars. Area residents missed or not at home when called upon are asked to call anyone on the executive board so that their calendars may be ordered by Sept. 15.

Duane Wilson of Portland spent Labor Day weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson, and with his sister, Mrs. Duane Fuller and family at Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Troutman and children and Mrs. Mary Manka took a picnic lunch and drove to Silver City Thursday to spend the day.

Returns Home from Hospital

Frank Zimdars returned home Thursday from Malheur Memorial hospital where he was under treatment for cuts and bruises received in a recent auto accident. Mrs. Nora Price, driver of the other car involved, was only slightly injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Geer and children of Albany, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ray, Jr., and family of Seattle spent last week visiting in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hawkins and family of Denver, Colo., have been visiting the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sells and other relatives. On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hawkins of Caldwell arrived and Ed Sells took Gerald Hawkins and C. L. Hawkins fishing on the Middle Fork of Weiser river.

VISIT FROM SPOKANE

The Misses Karen Bybee and Sonya Borlaug spent Labor Day weekend with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brower. Both young ladies are students at Kinman Business college in Spokane.
