Nyssa Ladies Attend Exceptional Children Meeting in La Grande

Miss Nelle Hayes, Mrs. J. W. Rigney and Mrs. Paul Blaylock spent last Saturday in La Grande where they attended the fall meeting of the Eastern Oregon Chapter of Exceptional Children.

General theme of the meeting was Cooperating Areas of Special Education. Dr. Harold McAbee, superintendent of the La Grande schools, spoke on "The Superintendent as a Team Member."

Others who gave talks as team members were Mrs. Norma Noyes, school board member, La Grande; Darrell Muller, director of special education, Pendleton; Don O'Neill, guidance director, La Grande; Effie Cole, Union county public health department; Clair McMullen, Union county public welfare worker; and Arthur Gillespie, vocational rehabilitation director for Eastern Oregon.

Special guest speakers were John Taylor, State Department of Education, Salem; and Dr. Karl Ashley, Oregon State Board of Health, Portland.

A luncheon was served at noon by girls of the La Grande junior high school special class. These girls also assisted in preparation of food. Speakers during the luncheon were Dr. Richard Hall, M.D.; Dr. Douglas Eustace, dentist; and Dr. Earl Schmidt, optometrist, all of La Grande.

IDAHO FAMILY VISITS

CWO and Mrs. E. B. Brady and family of Mountain Home were weekend guests of his mother, Mrs. J. I. Brady. Brady and his sons spent some time deer hunting in the Beulah area but were unsuccessful.

HAVE UTAH GUESTS

Mrs. Vauna S. Jacobson of Salt Lake City and Mrs. Lucille C. Reading of Farmington, Utah, were Sunday overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Flinders. Sue Olsen was also a Sunday guest of Gail Flinders.

for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duncan in the Vale LDS church. Mrs. Duncan is a niece of Mrs. Ray Cartwright.

Mrs. Dyre Roberts attended Happy Dozen Card club Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thelma Hammon in Newell Heights.

Darryl Seuell, a student at OSU in Corvallis, spent a shortened weekend at home. He was delayed about 15 hours at Albany because of the violent storm Friday evening.

Karel Obenchain of Nyssa was a Sunday dinner guest of Carol Clucas.

Garth Olsen Injured When Struck by Auto

Mr. and Mrs. Brig Olsen went to Logan, Utah, recently to be with their son, Garth, who was struck by a car while walking to the Utah State university campus. He suffered a major brain concussion, must remain in a Logan hospital indefinitely and is reported in fair condition.

His brother, Vard, who is stationed at Ellsworth Air Force Base in South Dakota, was expected to arrive in Logan Tuesday. He plans to come on to Nyssa to get his wife.

Enroute home the Olsens also visited her mother, Mrs. Margaret Petterson, who is ill in Rupert, Idaho.

SPEND WEEKEND AT CAMAS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eldredge spent the weekend in Camas, Wash., visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Eldredge and family.

NO CATCHY CAMPAIGN SLOGANS?

Thinking voters won't send empty phrases to Congress. They'll send a solid, responsible man who can do the job needed in Washington. That's why Bob Chandler doesn't insult your intelligence with catch-words and gimmicks. He doesn't need them. With a newspaper editor's insight into the problems and needs of our area, Bob Chandler offers sound, knowledgeable representation for Eastern Oregon. If that's what you want, you'll vote for him. Without benefit of a campaign slogan.
