

Emblem Club Initiates New Members, Plans Mother-Daughter Dinner Event

Initiation was conducted for seven new members at the Oct. 8 meeting of Ontario Emblem club No. 192. They were Mmes. Richard Grasmick, Elbert Dodson, Harold Strom, Payette; Gerald Goodfellow, Paul Knox, Lester Langer, Ontario; Eugene Sharp, New Plymouth. The new initiates will be known as Junior Past President Donella Bybee's class.

Tuesday Bridge Members Meet at Paul Penrod Home

Mrs. Paul Penrod entertained last week for members of the Tuesday bridge club with two tables in play. Mrs. Joe Maughn attended as guest player. Prizes were won by Mrs. Dick Forbes and Mrs. George Mitchell.

Mrs. Cook Hosts Club

Mrs. Angie Cook was hostess Oct. 10 to members of her bridge club. Prizes were won by Mrs. Lyda Kohl, high, and Mrs. Aden Wilson, traveling.

Party Fetes Mrs. Foster On Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. W. W. Foster was guest of honor Sunday afternoon at a party in observance of her 72nd birthday anniversary.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tobler, Mr. and Mrs. John Long, Mrs. Raymond Sager, A. A. Bratton and the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Ludlow.

The afternoon was spent playing Aggravation, after which light refreshments were served.

TOOMB COUPLE ENTERTAINS

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Toomb entertained Saturday evening at a pinocle party. A potluck dinner preceded the evening session. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cruson of Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Devin.

Kent Boydell Honored

On 10th Anniversary
Kent Boydell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boydell, celebrated his 10th birthday anniversary with a theater party last Friday evening. Accompanying him to the movie were Mark Hirai, Kelly Kurtz, Lynn Hirai and Dannie Bell.

Following the show, the lads returned to the Boydell home for traditional refreshments.

Prized Possessions Shown By Members of Amity Club

Members of the Amity club met last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Mark Moncur.

Highly treasured possessions of club members were brought and displayed and explanations of their values were related, resulting in an unusual and interesting variety of items.

Mrs. Charles Mann was winner of the door prize.

Next meeting will be Oct. 26 at the home of Mrs. Solon Lewis.

We Heard He'd Gone to Take HIS CLOTHES

— to —
Ideal Cleaners and Laundry

503 Main Street
Phone 372-2953
Nyssa, Oregon

AUCTION SALES

— Conducted by —

Col. Bert Anderson
Ontario — 889-5501

Col. Guy Sparks
Nyssa — 372-3475

— Clerk —

JIM YOST, Nyssa — Phone 372-3071

For the Latest Auction News, Listen to KSRV, Ontario, at 12:15 p.m. Daily.

PUBLIC DAIRY SALE

FRIDAY, OCT. 26, 12:30 p.m.—Located 4 miles northwest of Ontario on Highway 30 to Stanton Boulevard, then first house on right. 51 HEAD OF GRADE "A" DAIRY CATTLE (Guernseys and Holsteins). Averaged more than 400 lbs. of butterfat per cow for past four years. Complete DHIA records will be given day of sale. All calfhood vaccinated. MILKING EQUIPMENT. ALFALFA HAY and CORN ENSILAGE. CAL and SHIRLEY HUGHES, Owners. Terms, cash.

State Head Reports To Auxiliary Ladies On National Meeting

Fraternal Order of Eagles auxiliary met Oct. 9 for a potluck dinner honoring State Madam President Olive Fordham. Sixteen of the auxiliary members attending the dinner and business meeting were from the Nampa auxiliary and 34 from Nyssa.

During the business meeting, Virginia Brandt reported that Carlos Parra has sold two more of his paintings—an oil of a buffalo and a water color of Owyhee river. She also stated that she and Carlos would both have pictures displayed at Maudie Owens' cafe at Payette.

Madam President Stella Swager appointed Thelma Mefford to fill the vacant office of inside guard. Dorothy Mitchell's name was called for the jackpot prize and Edna Mills was winner of the door prize.

State Madam President Fordham gave an inspiring talk on her trip to Pittsburgh, Pa., for the national convention and the wonderful work being done by Eagles throughout all the states.

Madam President Stella Swager of the Nyssa auxiliary and Madam

Mrs. Poor Reviews Book At Saturday Club Meeting

Mrs. M. L. Judd entertained Saturday for members of the Book club with 16 ladies in attendance. Guests were Mrs. Mar-don Talbot of Boise, Mrs. Jessie Morgan, Mrs. Bernard Eastman, Mrs. Gerrit Timmerman and Miss Margery Nihart.

Mrs. Delbert Poor reviewed the book "It's a Big Continent" by Dan Lucien Burman.

RETURN FROM NEBRASKA

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pruyn returned home Monday evening from Nebraska where they had visited his mother and stepfather. They were accompanied by Mrs. Zora Osborne who visited her daughter at Alliance, Neb.

Quickie Dessert

Maple frost is a quick and easy dessert made by pouring maple syrup over ice cream in sherbet glasses. Store in refrigerator at least one hour before serving.

President Billie Wilder of Nampa presented Mrs. Fordham with gifts on behalf of their respective auxiliaries in appreciation of the work she is doing.

Date Change Noted For Methodist Guild

Wesleyan Service Guild will meet Monday evening, Oct. 22, in the Methodist church parlor. Regular meeting was scheduled for Tuesday evening but had to be changed due to conflicting activities.

Mrs. C. A. Wernick will be in charge of the program using the theme "United Efforts," which tells how the United Nations serves.

Week of prayer and self-denial service will be under direction of Mrs. Mural Lewis.

GUESTS IN WALTERS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brammer and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brammer of El Dorado, Kan., were Tuesday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Walters. The Ellis couple and J. R. Brammer have known each other for many years, both in Arkansas and in Nyssa.

Brammer was a Nyssa resident approximately 50 years ago. The two men spent considerable time discussing the many changes in Nyssa since that time.

Classifieds Bring Results!

Mrs. Kortlever Honored With Party Before Moving to Farm Near Astoria

By Mrs. George Moeller

ARCADIA — Several members of the Arcadia club met Wednesday evening, Oct. 10, at the home of Mrs. Clyde Bowers for a farewell party honoring Mrs. Fred Kortlever. The evening was spent visiting and viewing home movies. The club presented the honoree with a gift.

The Kortlevs have lived on the Ralph Jones farm for several years and have now purchased a dairy farm at King's Meadow near Astoria. The family moved last weekend.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bowers.

Mrs. Pearl Crow and Dick Crow of Newberg, Ore., visited in the Otis Bullard home last week. Mrs. Crow is a former resident of Arcadia community.

Mrs. Alice Neiger and Janelle visited Sunday afternoon in the George Coleman home.

Mrs. Amy Stradley spent Sunday with Mrs. Frone Stradley in Big Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sandburg and son, Walter of Portland, spent the weekend in the Cecil Houston home.

Mrs. George Hust and daughter and her aunt, Mrs. Alice Kilborn, visited Monday with relatives in Council, Idaho.

Arcadia Club Meets Oct. 26

Arcadia club met Oct. 12 with Marie Louise Mangin. Thirteen members were present. Roll call was answered by "Care of Fall Flowers." Goldie Roper drew the door prize. Next meeting will be Oct. 26 at the home of Mrs. George Moeller.

Mrs. Clayton Wilson and two daughters of Payette spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. George Coleman while Wilson was elk hunting.

Mrs. Marvin Jensen and son, Mrs. Dewey Brown and daughter of Boise, Mrs. George Boyack and daughter, Mrs. Ray Wilder and daughters of Meridian spent last Thursday with Mrs. Otis Bullard. They had a quilting and sewing session.

OF THE NEW

Kerby-Danford Medical Building

17 South Third Street . . . Nyssa, Oregon

on

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1962

From 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

A JOURNAL PHOTOGRAPHER stood just inside the front entrance of the new medical building when this photo was taken Monday. Through the window may be seen (left to right) staff members Thelma Hamamura, Marge Morrison and Josephine Mendazona. Seated in the waiting room, to the left of the office window, is Janice Evans and to the extreme right is Jake Fischer.

In Our New Building and New Location

... WE HAVE ...

- ★ Off-Street Parking Lot
- ★ Ground Level Entry
- ★ More Examination Rooms
- ★ Equipment on One Floor
- ★ More Office Space
- ★ More Natural Sunlight
- ★ Sound-Proof Rooms
- ★ New Furnishings

★ Dr. J. R. Cundall, Dentist, on Same Floor