Sugar Beets Proven Useful Nyssa Product

(From the Nyssa High Bulldog)
"Welcome to Nyssa, the Sugar City" is a common phrase of all proud Nyssans.

You know those green leafy things that farmers grow? That's right, those "dealies" that some of the farm kids hoe out—or hoe clean of weeds in the summer. Yes, the pretty green "weeds" you chase pheasants from. Those are beets that make sugar. From them the Sugar City gets its nickname.

Besides being one of the farmer's best sources of income, sugar beets also help increase the population of Nyssa with the city's biggest industry—the sugar factory.

Beets help solve name problems for various businesses and groups, too. Can you think of a more appropriate name for a musical group than "The Sugar Beats?" Have you ever heard a more clever name for bowling lanes than the "Sugar Bowl?"

The next time you see some smelly beets driving by (in a truck), don't plug your nose and run; look at the bright side; they are one of Nyssa's greatest assets.

DARNED RIGHT I'LL VOTE FOR CHANDLER!

It's about time we had some solid, no-nonsense representation in Congress. Chandler fits the bill. He's a hard-headed newspaper editor who really knows our area — what we want, what we need. He can get the right kind of job done in Washington. You bet I'm voting for Chandler. Won't you?

$6¼ MILLION IS A LOT OF LOCAL TAXES

Can You Afford to Lose Any of Them?

These Checks Are Real—adding up to $6,273,893—Idaho Power's state and local tax payments for 1961.*

They went to state government and to counties for distribution to schools, cities and towns, highway and improvement districts, cemeteries etc., and for the support of county government. They include tax rebates to irrigators using electric pumps.

State and local taxing districts rely heavily upon electric company taxes. Without them, YOUR OWN TAXES would need to be greatly increased.

Can you afford to eliminate any of these vital tax revenues by the introduction of tax-exempt Bonneville power into this area?

Can you afford to forego any such local tax revenues for the financial benefit of a small minority who seek to avoid their own proper share of the tax burden?

Their gain would strike your purse.

IDAHO POWER COMPANY'S STATE AND LOCAL TAX PAYMENTS FOR 1961:

State Taxes	..... $2,186,697
School Taxes	.... 2,672,182
County & City Taxes	..... 1,415,014
Total	..... $6,273,893*

*Idaho Power's federal taxes in 1961 amounted to an additional $5,924,162.
