Lady Realtors Elect New Officers; Name Scholarship Recipient

Members and their guests were present at the regular meeting of the Woman's council, Malheur county chapter of the National Association of Real Estate Boards Tuesday evening, Oct. 16, in the Lion's Den at East Side cafe in Ontario.

Guest speaker was Jay A. Phillips, Ontario realtor, who gave an informative talk on the various approaches used in appraisal of real property. Phillips attended the MAI appraisal school in Portland last year.

A report from the nominating committee was given by Eleanor Bean, chairman, followed by election of officers. Unanimously named to office were Nell Christiansen, president; Dorothea Chester, vice president; and Shirley Little, secretary-treasurer. New officers will be installed in December.

Helen Dealy, president, presided and announced that Gloria Erwin Roberts, winner of the business scholarship given by the council, is not planning to go on to school, so the award was given to Lois Haines of Ontario. She is attending Kinman Business university in Spokane. She will graduate with a 1.66 point scholastic average and is receiving straight A's at the university.

She was awarded a gold fountain pen and has completed some courses in two-thirds the regular allotted time.

Next regular meeting of the Woman's council will be Nov. 13.

Ralph Maloney of Alsea, Ore., recently spent 10 days visiting in the J. H. Malloy home. He also came for pheasant hunting.

'Why Don't We?' Topic Discussed At Club Meeting

By Farmerettes Club

NU ACRES—A regular meeting of the Farmerettes club was held last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Baxter with Alida Smit as co-hostess. After the regular business meeting, a short discussion was held on "Why Don't We?" This was followed by Alta Conner demonstrating "A Quick and Easy Casserole."

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the 16 members present.

Next regular meeting of the club will be Nov. 14 at the home Doris Keck with Janice Evans as co-hostess.

Mrs. Effie Nielson and Mrs. Elizabeth Baxter returned recently from a trip to Seattle where they attended the World's Fair. They experienced some of the heavy storms which hit that section of the country.

Mrs. Alida Smit returned to Nu Acres recently from a short visit at the home of her daughter in Goodrich, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Schoenborn visited here last week with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Wilson and daughters. The visitors are from Mollalla, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Unwin visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown in Nyssa.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jorgenson attended a recent birthday party for her nephew, Pratt Petterson of Nyssa.

Miss Patsy Hawks was one of the 4-Hers who attended the Oct. 12-17 convention in Portland.

VISITS TEXAS STATE FAIR

While visiting the Texas State Fair in Dallas in October, Airman Second Class Kenneth E. Gifford filled out a form supplied for out-of-town visitors. Fair officials stated on the form that it would be sent to the visitor's hometown newspaper. The form was received this week at the Journal office.

Gifford is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gifford of 513 North Fifth street in Nyssa. He is presently with the U.S. Air Force stationed at Dyess Air Force base near Abilene, Texas.

Bob Chandler gets my vote for Congress. Here's why:

by MAURICE O. JUDD
NYSSA, OREGON

"Here's a man you can count on — an intellectually honest, self-sufficient man dedicated to the service of all Eastern Oregon. As editor of his daily newspaper, Bob Chandler has long measured the pulse of the people here. He knows what makes our economy tick. He knows the needs and the opportunities of our area. And he's fully prepared to speak out for us in Congress. Bob Chandler deserves your vote of confidence, too!"

THE STORY OF TEN LITTLE FREE WORKERS

THESE ARE THE WORKERS

Ten little free workers in this country fine and fair.
But if you cherish your freedom—worker have a care!
Ten little free workers—Reddy was doing fine
Until the socialists got him—then there were nine.

Nine little free workers laughed at Reddy's fate
Along came federal medicine—then there were eight.

Eight little free workers thought this country heaven
But the government took over the railroads, then there were seven.

Seven little free workers—till the miners got in a fix.
Uncle said coal's essential and took over leaving six.

Six little free workers 'till the day did arrive
The steel mills too were federalized—then there were five.

Five little free workers—but the farmers are free no more
The farms have been collectivized—that leaves only four.

Four little free workers till the government did decree
All must have free legal advice—then there were three.

Three little free workers—the number is getting few,
But with government groceries selling food—then there were two.

Two little free workers—our story's almost done,
With clerks at work in federal stores—that leaves only one.

One little free worker—the reporter son-of-a-gun
Mustn't criticize government—so now there are none.

Ten little workers—but they are no longer free
They work when and where ordered, and at a fixed rate you see,
And it all could have been prevented if they'd only seen fit to agree
And work together instead of saying "it never can happen to me!"

Yes... this could happen to you. This little story could come true unless each of us works to preserve free enterprise and keep government out of business.

OLD Mr. BOSTON

YE INTELLIGENT BUYER'S GUIDE TO FINEST LIQUORS

Like Fine Scotch, Canadian, Rum & Brandy...

KENTUCKY WHISKEY TASTES BEST AS A BLEND!

There's only one way to make a good Kentucky Whiskey taste better... blend it with other Kentucky Whiskeys and grain neutral spirits.

For years, the secret behind the famous smoothness of Scotch and Canadian whiskeys is the fact that they are actually blends of several different types of Scotch and Canadian whiskeys. Most Rums and Brandies are blends too, of several different types of these well-known liquors.

Now, Mr. Boston actually improves on the natural rich flavor of good Kentucky Whiskey by selecting several of the best and blending them together with choice grain neutral spirits. Result: smooth flavor balance and mildness that straight Kentucky just can't match. Try a bottle of Mr. Boston's Rocking Chair soon!
