

Bulldogs Drop Final Game of Season To Meridian Warriors With 27-13 Score

By FRANK PARR

The last football game of the 1962 season was one of the best the Bulldogs played all season even though Meridian emerged the winner. Matching score for score and first downs the lads from Nyssa kept the outcome in doubt up to the last two minutes. The score was 14-13 at this point.

A Nyssa drive lost the ball to the Warriors on their 45-yard line. Meridian started to roll and a final pass from the Nyssa 35 put them out on top 20-13. Nyssa again lost on downs at midfield. A long pass carried Meridian to the 3-yard line with 22 seconds left. They pushed it over, made the extra point and the game was over.

Bulldog Season Reviewed

The Bulldogs started the season off with an impressive 40-0 victory over the Weiser Wolverines. Playing the next game against a determined Payette squad, they were 7-0 victims in a game which might have gone either way.

Invading Emmett territory for the next game, the Bulldogs, badly outmanned, fell to the Huskies by a 28-0 score.

Vale at Nyssa was the next assignment for Coaches Bob Morford, Harry McGinley and the Bulldogs. The game ended with

Adrian's Antelopes Lose to Homedale By 32-12 Final Score
The Homedale Trojans won a 32-12 grid victory over the visiting Adrian Antelopes last Friday evening. The Idaho team scored one touchdown in the first quarter but failed to make the PAT, making the score 6-0 when the buzzer sounded.

In the second stanza, Adrian retaliated as Atkins carried the ball across on a one-yard plunge. The Antelopes' run for the PAT failed and the score stood at 6-6. Homedale scored another TD and also made the extra point. Adrian came back as Hastriter took a 20-yard pass from Mitchell. The kick for conversion failed and the halftime score stood at 13-12 in favor of the host team.

During the third quarter, the Trojans gained two touchdowns, making a total of 26 points while the Antelopes failed to score.

In the final quarter, the Idaho team again found the way to the goal line and final score stood at 32-12 in favor of Homedale.
