

Scholarships, Federal Aid Are Among Topics Studied by Apple Valley PTA

Apple Valley PTA Nov. 15 meeting was opened with prayer by President Helen Wilson. During the business session a net profit of $363.50 was reported by Mrs. Don Phillippi, carnival chairman.

Mrs. Hazel Ferguson, scholarship chairman, gave a short talk on scholarships and explained the five different areas into which the scholarship program of the Idaho Congress of Parents and Teachers is divided. She then introduced Lloyd Dibble, guest speaker for the evening. His talk included information on how and when he received his scholarship and he also told about the children he now works with.

Apple Valley PTA again this year voted to give $15 to the scholarship fund.

Mrs. Mary Greenway, reading and library chairman, had a book display of special interest, showing some new editions and some the children had brought for the parents to view. Book marks made by the children were also shown.

Encourages Reading to Children

Mrs. Greenway urged parents to have good books available, to encourage their children to read and to prepare pre-schoolers for classwork by reading to them.

A message, "Telstar at Thanksgiving" by Margaret E. Jenkins, president of National Congress of Parents and Teachers, was read by Mrs. Leona Sandy.

A committee, comprising Apple Valley teachers, Arnie Finkbeiner, Mrs. Mary Greenway, Mrs.

Ellen Minium and Mrs. Hazel Ferguson, was chosen to approve and purchase a projector for the school. This same committee is also to approve and purchase a set of science books for the school. Both are PTA projects.

It was decided to send a belated birthday card to Mr. Murdoch McDonald on the occasion of his 100th anniversary. He now lives at Yerba Linda, Calif., and was bus driver and custodian at Apple Valley school many years ago.

Favor Federal Aid to Education

A discussion was held on federal aid to education with Mrs. Ona Tuning, Mrs. Betty Stone, Charles Mann and C. C. McArthur present to answer questions. Mrs. Tuning gave a brief talk on her reasons against federal aid and Mrs. Stone stated her reasons for federal aid. Ballots were distributed and members voted in favor of maintaining federal support now received for publicly controlled, tax-supported schools.

After room count for the evening was taken, it was announced that Finkbeiner's sixth grade room had won the count for the first semester with a total of 191 points and will receive a $10 award. Mrs. Shirley Faulk was winner of the door prize.

Refreshments were served by second grade mothers.

John Murphy Rites Conducted Monday At Chapel in Nyssa

Funeral services for John Murphy, 78, were conducted Monday afternoon, Nov. 19, 1962, at Lienkaemper chapel. The Rev. Wallace Prowell of Nyssa First Christian church officiated. Howard Larson was soloist, while organist was Mrs. Dwight Wyckoff.

Mr. Murphy succumbed last Thursday in Malheur Memorial Hospital. He was born Oct. 18, 1884, in Fairfield, Iowa. He was united in marriage to Effie Jane Cornett on April 11, 1916, in that city.

They resided on a farm near Tina, Mo., from 1920 to 1938 when they moved to Nyssa. Prior to his retirement in 1950, he worked here as a blacksmith.

Among survivors are his widow of the home; one brother, Ben Murphy of Fairfield; several nephews and nieces in Iowa. One sister preceded him in death.

Interment was made in the Nyssa cemetery under direction of Lienkaemper funeral home. Active pallbearers included Irvin Topliff, Howard Myrick, Jerry Myrick, Alva Goodell, Harry and Lyle Miner.

Among honorary bearers were Ed Warren, George McKee, Leslie Topliff and Dwight Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Jones and daughters of Ontario visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Farr.
