

Ceremony With Holiday Theme Joins Jackie L. Barnhouse, Dean Lancaster

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Lancaster —Portrait by Schoen.

An 8 o'clock evening ceremony, performed Dec. 7, 1962, in Nyssa Church of the Nazarene, united Miss Jackie Lee Barnhouse and Dean Lancaster.

The bride is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Omar Barnhouse, former Nyssans now residing in Nampa, Idaho. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Murl Lancaster of 307 North Fourth street, Nyssa.

"Winter Wonderland" was the theme used in church decorations with accents of blue and white. The brass candelabra contained giant mums and white flocked greenery. On each side were evergreen trees, flocked in white and containing tiny blue lights. A blue floodlight shone down from above.

The Rev. Barnhouse, assisted by Emerson Hill, an uncle of the bride from Denver, Colo., performed the double-ring rites in the presence of approximately 250 invited guests.

Vocal solos were rendered by Tom Matlock, accompanied by his wife. Organist was Mrs. Don Wilson, while Miss Mary Lou Lancaster provided piano music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of chantilly lace, flowing into a chapel train. The fitted bodice was fashioned with scalloped neckline, long tapered sleeves and large bow at waistline in back. Her veil of French illusion was held by a crown of pearls. She carried a white orchid arranged on a white fur muff containing blue streamers.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Stanley Hiner as matron of honor, Miss Aleta Anderson as bridesmaid and LaVada Norlin as junior bridesmaid. They wore identical street-length gowns of blue taffeta and carried bouquets of blue flowers, netting and white streamers arranged on white fur muffs and wore matching white fur head pieces.

Gary Jones served as best man, while ushers were Don Shaw and Gene Servoss. Others attending the bridegroom were Jim Nichols and Lonnie Barnhouse.

Flower girl was Susan Monroe, dressed in white dacron organza containing blue embroidered flowers on bodice and three-quarter-length sleeves. Gayle Carter served as ringbearer, while candlelighters were Michael Lancaster and Ricky Reynolds.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Barnhouse wore a dress of sage green. The bridegroom's mother wore a medium blue frock. Both wore an orchid corsage.

A wedding cake, baked and decorated by the bride's mother, centered the refreshment table at a reception following the ceremony. The cake contained white bells, miniature stair steps and at the top stood the bride and groom near an altar window. Miniature bridal party attendants stood at the base.

In charge of serving was Mrs. Bill Fitzsimmons, assisted by Mrs. Roger Tucker, Mrs. Emerson Hill, the bride's aunt, Mrs. I. F. Younger, Mrs. Ray Downum and Mrs. Joe Hobson. Others assisting included Mrs. John Sheppard, Mrs. Lavern Berg, Mrs. Roy Wild, Mrs. Ken Saunders and Mrs. Dick Reynolds.

At the gift table were Sandra Bogle, Lavina Norlin and Connie Price. Miss Charlotte Capper was in charge of guest registration.

The new Mrs. Lancaster attended Marsing and Kuna, Idaho, schools and is presently a senior at Nyssa high. The bridegroom was graduated from Nyssa high school and attended the College of Idaho in Caldwell.

The newlyweds will reside at 419 North Fourth street in Nyssa, where he is employed as a clerk for the Union Pacific railroad company.

Funeral Rites Held Friday Afternoon For Charles Bullard

Funeral services for Charles Bullard were conducted Friday afternoon, Dec. 28, 1962, at Lienkaemper chapel with the Rev. Arthur Skogan of the Owyhee Community church officiating.

Mr. Bullard succumbed early Christmas day in his home at 802 Park avenue in Nyssa.

He was born Jan. 12, 1877, at Ft. Madison, Wis., a son of Richard and Sarah Bratton Bullard. His parents died when he was very young, so he lived with his grandparents, moving with them to Nebraska.

He was united in marriage Jan. 11, 1896, to Emma Bohy at Ord, Neb., and the couple came to Oregon that year by wagon train.

He first worked in Malheur county as a buckaroo for the old PL & S company and later farmed near Vale. In 1912 he and his family moved to the Arcadia community where he converted 120 acres of sagebrush into a farm.

The deceased was active in the formation of Nyssa Road District No. 1, served as a director on the Shoestring Ditch of the Nyssa-Ontario Irrigation district and also served as director on the Arcadia school board prior to consolidation.

He farmed in the Arcadia area until ill health forced his retirement and then moved to Nyssa where he spent the remainder of his days.

Mrs. Bullard died July 9, 1945. He was married to Gladys Fifer of Vale on Nov. 8, 1948.

In addition to his widow of the home, he is survived by one son, Otis of Nyssa; three daughters,
