

Malheur Butte Baptist Youth League Attends Payette Rally, Holds Dinner

By Mrs. Vern L. Smith
LINCOLN HEIGHTS—Baptist Youth League members of Malheur Butte Baptist church attended a rally Friday evening at the Bible Baptist church at Payette. The Rev. Ken Cummings, northwest regional director of the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission society, was the inspiration speaker.
 On Saturday evening the same group held a progressive dinner. After they visited a number of homes they went to the home of their leader, Mrs. Harlan Meyer, for dessert and then held a time of devotions and testimonies.

To Speak at Butte Church

Northeastern Brazil will be the future home of Miss Phyllis Clatterbuck, guest speaker at Malheur Butte Baptist church at 8 p.m. Jan. 13. Miss Clatterbuck will go to Brazil as a missionary with the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission society of Wheaton, Ill.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Wiggins and daughters of Pendleton were recent visitors at the parental Louis Wiggins home. John is able to get around somewhat without the use of crutches after breaking his leg in a combine accident last summer.

Raymond Dale of Reno was a Saturday overnight guest at the Jack Pettet home. He is Mrs. Pettet's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tropic and family of Champion, Neb., recently spent several days at the Eugene Gruell home. Tropic is Mrs. Gruell's brother.

Watch Night Services Held

New Year's watch night services were held at Malheur Butte Baptist church. An impromptu program was given, which was followed by Roger Dejmaj showing slides he had taken when he was in South America last summer. Following refreshments the group reassembled and Harry Smith gave a devotional message. The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Davis and children of Cambridge, Idaho, were present for the services.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barnes and Diane recently visited a few days in Portland at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Barnes and other relatives.

Called to Silverton

Mrs. Clarence Page was called to Silverton, Ore., due to the serious illness of her mother. She returned home Sunday, reporting her mother was improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Anderson and Laura Dee recently spent a few days in California visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Anderson.

Carol Ann Brown was guest of honor at a pre-nuptial shower at the Lewis Wiggins home prior to her recent marriage to Richard Lewis of Nyssa.

Suttons Have New Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sutton of Ontario are parents a daughter, Shelly Kay, born Friday, Jan. 4. Mr. and Mrs. Foster Sutton are paternal grandparents.

The Ladies club will hold its first meeting of the year at the Harris home. The December meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Whitsell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Noble and Gary of Portland recently spent a few days at the Vernon Carlstrom home. Margaret Ann Carlstrom returned to Corvallis with them when they went home. Gary is her fiance. He is presently taking six months' training in the National Guard.

Visit From California

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McPherson of Vallejo, Calif., are parents of a daughter, Lori Ann, born Dec. 7. They spent Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fifer of rural Vale. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren McPherson and family of Pendleton also visited here during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Ked Dejmaj and Sheri of Sweet Home, Ore., and Roger Dejmaj of Westmont college, Santa Barbara, Calif., spent part of the holiday vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Dejmaj.

Students Return to College

Kay Louise Ross has returned to Oregon State university at Corvallis to enroll for the winter term. She spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Ross. Harry Smith has also returned to OSU after spending vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Smith.

Women's Missionary Fellowship of Malheur Butte Baptist church recently held its annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Paul Halverson. Theme of the program was "Christmas Lights Around the World," which contained a resume of the missionaries of the Conservative Baptist societies. Election of officers was held. Those who will hold offices during 1963 include Mrs. Vern L. Smith, president; Mrs. Ralph Barnes, vice president; Mrs. Paul Halverson, secretary; and Mrs. Bill Walz, treasurer.

The ladies brought plastic wrapped gifts for a missionary box. Mrs. Clarence Page was co-hostess with Mrs. Halverson in serving refreshments.

Returns to Nebraska

Mrs. Anna Tetterton has returned to her home in Nebraska after a visit at the Ray Whitsell home. She is Whitsell's aunt and a sister of Mrs. Amelia Whitsell. Mr. and Mrs. Roland Whitsell also spent a few days at the home of his parents before they returned to Corvallis for the winter term at Oregon State university.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stohler entertained Sunday for her father, Fred Walz, with a birthday anniversary dinner. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rinhold Stohler and family.

Mrs. John Matthews has gone to Portland where she will enroll in a course of study and also seek employment. Enroute she stopped to visit her sister, Mrs. Dale Hug and family at Alice, Ore.
