Holiday Colors Predominate at Rites Uniting Dixie Allison, Jim McKinley

MR. and MRS. JAMES R. MCKINLEY

An 8 o'clock evening ceremony performed Dec. 22, 1962, in Our Saviour's Lutheran church at Lebanon, Ore., united Miss Dixie Allison and James Raleigh McKinley.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Allison of Lebanon. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McKinley of route 1, Nyssa.

Miss Allison was given in marriage by her father during the double-ring rites performed by Pastor Knutsen of the church.

Her full-length gown of white lace over net and taffeta was designed with short sleeves and matching lace gauntlets. Her fingertip veil was held by a tiara of pearls and she carried a red poinsettia on a white Bible.

Miss Patricia Allison attended her sister as maid of honor and wore a gown of white lace and red chiffon over red taffeta. Bridesmaids were Jeanette Wachter, Linda Smith, Gay Hickey and Elizabeth Bennett. They were attired in frocks of red velvet and chiffon over red taffeta.

All lady attendants carried cascading bouquets containing red poinsettia centered with lighted candles.

Flower girls were Mary Ann and Susan Earnest, nieces of the bridegroom. Ringbearer was the bride's brother, Brian Allison. Maureen and Sharon Daugherty, Carolyn and Mary Ann Allison lighted the tapers.

LeRoy Larsen served as best man, while ushers were Frank Yraguen, Philip Hatch, Hugh Eddy and Jack Earnest.

Organ music was provided by Mrs. Stanley Johnson and Margaret Gates rendered vocal selections.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Allison wore a dress of green velvet, while the bridegroom's mother was attired in a blue wool frock. Both wore corsages of white carnations and red rose buds.

A reception was given for the newlyweds in the church parlor following the ceremony. Assisting were Mrs. Rex Allison, Miss Helen Strick, Mrs. Ray Wilkinson, Mrs. Robert Daugherty, Mrs. Chet Warner and Mrs. Larry Coakley.

The new Mrs. McKinley is a graduate of Lebanon Union high school and her husband was graduated from Adrian high. Both are seniors at Oregon State university in Corvallis where they are at home at 840 Groves street.
