Coffee Benefit Set For UN Pilgrimage By Local Odd Fellows

A "coffee" will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 19, in the Theron Wheeler home at 411 Emison avenue by Odd Fellows of Gate City Lodge No. 214. Proceeds will go for the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth program sponsored annually by Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

This program is for students to participate in essay contest with winner receiving a trip to the United Nations.

Title for the essays is "What the United Nations Means to Me as a Youth." Students are graded on their essay, 20 percent; poise

RETURN FROM OGDEN

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Chamberlain returned home Feb. 6 after a 10-day visit with relatives in Ogden.

and personality, 20 percent; and speech, 60 percent.

Date of the final district contest will be Sunday, April 7, at Baker.

Lodge members feel the general public should support these students and their affiliated schools in this worthwhile program.

Among those Nyssa students who have won the contest in years past and made the trip to the United Nations are Irene Jayo Eaton, Marilyn Pratt Jaques and Patricia Wright.

Hawaiian Stage Set For Saturday Event At Local Eagles Hall

Dance music, under direction of Bill Rhodenbaugh of Boise, will begin at 9:30 p.m. Saturday night at the hall when Nyssa Eagles stage their annual "Ladies' night."

This year's entertainment will feature 12 dancing gals (who may resemble local residents) allegedly from the island of love and romance, Hawaii.

It has been learned that it might be advisable to watch for a stowaway among the "hula" girls, described as having an unshaven appearance. Food is always a part of any successful party and it will be found free of charge in the basement of the lodge hall.

A featured attraction will be a genuine orchid lei from Hawaii.

BOISEANS VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Bateman of Boise were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Hooper.
