

Delegates Represent Area at Girls' State

eight years of 4-H work, has been a junior leader for the past two years and has held various offices in the 4-H organization.

Her church is the Adrian Presbyterian where she is a member of the choir, assistant Sunday school teacher and assistant leader of the junior choir. She is a past president of the youth group and presently sergeant-at-arms of the Fidelae Amica organization.

Lynn has worked for two years with the migrant ministry program and assists with Bible school for migrants.

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Chaney of route 3, Parma, and is being sent to Girls' State by the Farm Bureau.

Nyssa's Girls' State representative is Miss Lynn Jackson who is being sponsored by the Nyssa American Legion auxiliary. She is a member of the junior class at Nyssa high.

Miss Jackson is a former Girl Scout member and is now an assistant Brownie troop leader. Her favorite hobbies are music, art and riding horses. Since her grade school days, her greatest desire has been to become a doctor. She works parttime in the local hospital laboratory as a volunteer.

Busy With School Work

In both seventh and eighth grades, she was elected to the student council as program chairman. The job involved organizing of two junior high dances each year. She had held the office of class president several times while in grade school.

Lynn was secretary-treasurer of her freshman class and as a sophomore was put in charge of class assembly which she wrote and directed. She is now vice president of the junior class and is a chairman for the junior-senior prom. She is also secretary of Pep club and Science club and vice president of the major league of Girls' league.

In December of last year she was elected president of the local chapter of Future Homemakers of America. She attended FHA state convention last month in Corvallis.

She is assistant editor of the yearbook this year and next year will be editor.

Miss Jackson is a member of St. Bridget's Catholic church. Among her church activities have been catechism teacher for younger classes and church organist. She is presently assistant organist and a member of the church choir.

Lynn is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Jackson of Nyssa.

Hosts Tuesday Bridge

Mrs. J. L. Herriman entertained members of the Tuesday evening bridge club last week. Prizes were won by Mrs. Jessie Morgan and Mrs. Paul Penrod.

Samba Club Meets Friday

Mrs. Fred Guthrie and Mrs. E. H. Brandt were Samba prize winners when the club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. D. Holcomb. Mrs. Gladys Morfitt was a guest player.
