Joy-Gay Roth, David A. Pahl United In Pendleton Methodist Church Rites

MR. and MRS. DAVID PAHL

Wedding vows were exchanged between Joy-Gay Roth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roth of Moses Lake, Wash., formerly of Nyssa, and David A. Pahl of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pahl of Pendleton, Ore., in an afternoon ceremony March 23, 1963, at First Methodist church in Pendleton.

The Rev. Paul Ludlow, Methodist minister from Nyssa, read the double-ring rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza and chantilly lace, fashioned with fitted bodice, square neckline, long sleeves and bouffant floor-length skirt. Her overskirt of organza cascaded into a chapel train. Her butterfly veil was held by a cluster of Dior roses.

She wore a pearl drop necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was a white orchid, encircled with white roses and carried on a white Bible, a gift from the Rev. and Mrs. Ludlow.

Maid of honor was Miss Susan Roth, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were the Misses Becky Redding, Carolyn Johnson, Shirley Grant, Sandy Thomas, all sorority sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Gunnar Otness of Seattle.

They wore identical blue silk organza dresses with bell skirts and hats of white net around Dior roses. They carried cascades of white pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Best man was Richard Pahl of Pendleton, brother of the groom. Ushers were Robert Foster of Beverly Hills, Calif., Brian Freeman and Paul Benninghoff, both of Portland, Kent Rothrock of Albany, Ore., and Raley Peterson of Eugene. They all wore pale blue dinner jackets.

Candles were lighted by Viki Strandberg of Spokane, cousin of the bride, and Betty Yundt, a sorority sister. Julie Pahl, cousin of the groom, was flower girl.

Ivan Betsford played wedding music and also accompanied Mrs. William Turner, soloist.

A reception was held in the parish hall of the Episcopal church. Decorations were blue and white blossoms and candles with cherubs and garlands of blue flowers.

A five-tier cake was iced in white and topped with blue and white bells. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Robert Wilson of Nyssa and Mrs. Robert Watson of Portland, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Glenn Pahl, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Edwin Spangler of Moses Lake served punch.

Pouring were Mrs. Henry Murbach, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. G. R. Collins, Mrs. Howard Strandberg, Mrs. Kenneth Woodruff of St. Paul, Minn., all aunts of the bride; Mrs. Hans Pahl, grandmother of the bridegroom; Fannie Cupid, Amanda Mumm and Mrs. John Mumm, all his aunts.

Guests were registered by Sharon Calder and Mrs. Richard Pahl took care of gifts. June Pahl, cousin of the bridegroom, and Sandy Strandberg, cousin of the bride, passed the bridegroom's cake. Ronald and Rodney Pahl, the bridegroom's cousins, distributed bags of wheat.

The bride's mother was attired in a blue chiffon dress with matching shoes and white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore gold brocade with matching shoes and a white orchid.

The bridegroom, a Sigma Alpha Epsilon member, is a graduate of Oregon State university. The bride, a Gamma Phi Beta, was a junior at Oregon State university and is now continuing her studies at Portland State college.

For her wedding trip to the coast, the new Mrs. Pahl wore a white wool suit with red accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The Pahls are at home in Portland where he is assistant secretary-treasurer of the Northwest Cannery and Freezers association.

Special guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Murbach of Spokane and Phillip Roth of Moses Lake, grandparents of the bride; and Mrs. Hans Pahl and Mrs. Gertrude Young of La Grande, grandmothers of the bridegroom.

Bonnie Doughty, Larry Ellibee Wed In Recent Rites at Payette Church

MR. and MRS. LARRY ELLIBEE

—Portrait by Schoen.

A wedding ceremony performed at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon on March 31, 1963, at the First Church of God in Payette united Miss Bonnie L. Doughty and Larry L. Ellibee.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Esther King of route 2, Parma. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ellibee of Riggins, Idaho.

The Rev. McDaniels performed the double-ring rites before a setting of lavender and white floral arrangements and white tapers. Musical selections were recordings by Perry Como.

Given in marriage by Al Doughty, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of organza over satin, fashioned with large round collar and cap-sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a large white organza rose.

She carried a cascading bouquet containing large lavender orchid encircled with roses and carnations.

Mrs. Jo Ann Beeman attended as matron of honor and wore a dress of lavender and white. She carried a bouquet of white and lavender carnations.

Ron Beeman served as best man, while ushers were Jim Doughty and Lonnie Ellibee.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. King wore a salmon colored suit and a corsage of white and salmon carnations.

A three-tier wedding cake, decorated in white and lavender, centered the refreshment table at a reception held in the church basement following the ceremony. Assisting with serving, guest registration and gifts were the Misses Sam King, Gene Honey, George Griffin and Morris Ribblet.

The new Mrs. Ellibee attended Fruitland high school and her husband attended schools in Parma and Riggins. They are at home on route 2, Parma, where the bridegroom is employed by George Smit on his farm.
