

Miss Karen Dippel, Richard Anderson Wed in Walla Walla Methodist Church

MR. and MRS. RICHARD F. ANDERSON

A wedding ceremony performed at 2:30 p.m. on June 1, 1963, in the Pioneer Methodist church at Walla Walla, Wash., united Miss Karen K. Dippel and Richard F. Anderson.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dippel of Walla Walla. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Schoonover of Nyssa.

The Rev. Dr. David K. Almon performed the double-ring rites before an altar decorated with floral arrangements of white stock and pink carnations.

"The Anniversary Song" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by John McAdams, accompanied by Mrs. Melvin Brunton.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of nylon tulle and chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with square neckline and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt of nylon tulle was edged with lace and flowed into a small chapel train. Front of the skirt featured tiers of lace, accented with iridescent sequins.

Her veil of bridal illusion fell from a crown of chantilly lace, edged with seed pearls and she carried a cascading bouquet of gardenias, pink roses and stephanotis.

Wedding Attendants Named

Karen Anderson attended a maid of honor and wore a dark green gown, white gloves and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Bridesmaids were Nancy Himes, Mrs. Nat (Linda) Palmer and Ida Williams. They were attired in pastel green dresses, white gloves and carried long-stemmed pink roses.

Debbie Snyder, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a dress identical to those of the bridesmaids. Terry Snyder, another cousin, was ring-bearer.

Michael Freeman of Seattle served as best man, while ushers were Doug Dippel, brother of the bride; Jim and Wes Luster, stepbrothers of the bridegroom, from Pendleton.
