

Rodgers, Niccum Rites Performed In Apple Valley

Julia Ann Rodgers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rodgers of Parma, and James Edward Niccum, son of Clarence Niccum of rural Nyssa, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock in the evening, July 1, 1963, at the home of the bride's parents in Apple Valley.

The Rev. Stevens, pastor of the Assembly of God church in Wilder, performed the double-ring rites in the presence of 30 guests, including the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Fred Gray of Baker.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of violet lace and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Richard Peterson of Emmett, sister-in-law of the bride, attended as matron of honor and was attired in blue. Roscoe Tanner served as best man, while usher was Frank Rodgers, the bride's brother.

The parental home was decorated with large basket arrangements of white hydrangea and pink roses and was also the scene of a reception following the ceremony.

A pink and white wedding cake centering the refreshment table, was cut and served by Mrs. John Niccum, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Mrs. Jack Peterson, sister-in-law of the bride, served ice cream while Mrs. Harry Ray presided at the gift table. Accordion music was furnished by Becky Ray.

The new Mrs. Niccum attended Emmett high school and the bridegroom attended Nyssa high. After a short wedding trip to Baker, the newlyweds will be at home on the Fred Martin ranch where he is employed.

Candlelight Rites in Adrian Church Unite Judy LaFever, Terry J. Borge

MR. and MRS. TERRY JAKE BORGE

—Portrait by Schoen.

Candlelight and garden flowers provided the setting for a wedding ceremony performed at 8 o'clock in the evening on June 22, 1963, uniting Miss Judy LaFever and Terry Jake Borge.

The Adrian Presbyterian church altar was graced with basket arrangements of white daisies, pink roses and blue delphinium at the rites performed by the Rev. Robert McNeil, pastor of the Vale Methodist church.

Approximately 60 guests witnessed the double-ring ceremony. Soloist was Dale Borge, while wedding music was provided by Marie Borge and Mrs. James Phifer.

For her wedding, the bride was attired in a white tulle-length gown designed with lace bodice, scoop neckline and silk organza overskirt. Her short veil of silk illusion, accented with tear-drop pearls, fell from a crown-shaped tiara. Her bouquet of white chifon daisies was centered with a corsage of apricot-colored rosebuds.

Loretta Kay Borge attended as maid of honor and wore a sheath frock of light blue orlon taffeta fashioned with rose and blue iridescent silk organza overskirt. Her bouquet was of white chifon daisies, centered with pink carnations.

Dale Borge served as best man for his brother, while ushers were Jim Grooms of Huntington and Bill McKelvy of Caldwell.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Borge chose a grey crepe jacket dress, trimmed in red and with it wore red accessories and a red rose corsage.

A four-tier wedding cake, trimmed with white roses, bells and topped with wedding bells and net, centered the refreshment table at a reception held in the church basement following the ceremony.

Assisting with serving were Mrs. Albert Borge, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Bill McKelvy, his cousin; and Mrs. Clifford Pope, another cousin.

Among out-of-state guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Borge of Orangeville, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Harvey and Lyleen of Weiser; Mr. and Mrs. Bill McKelvy, Cindy, Debbie, Vicki and Erin of Caldwell; Mrs. Clifford Pope, Teresa and Loretta of Boise; Mrs. Walter Markham of Stamford, Neb.; and Wilma Markham of Lincoln, Neb.

The new Mrs. Borge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie N. LaFever of Honolulu, Hawaii, studied one year at Murray State college in Murray, Ky., and also one year at the University of Hawaii in Honolulu.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake J. Borge of route 1, Nyssa, attended the University of Oregon in Eugene for one year and served four years in the U. S. Navy.

Following a wedding trip to Payette Lakes and after spending the summer assisting his parents on the farm, the newlyweds will reside in Klamath Falls where the bridegroom plans to enter Oregon School of Technology in the fall.

LIENKAEMPERS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Lienkaemper returned home last Friday from a week's stay in their cabin near Wallowa lake. While there they saw former Nyssans, Mr. and Mrs. George Henneman, who now reside at Enterprise and Mr. and Mrs. William DeGroff.

Anniversary Event Honors Lee Lovitts

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lovitt of route 3, Parma, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary with an outdoor reception Saturday in Nyssa south park.

Presiding at the guest book was Mrs. Ervin Callahan of Tulelake, Calif. Mrs. Larry Hunter registered the gifts. Mrs. Carl Lovitt and Mrs. Larry Hunter served the three-tier cake. Mrs. Carl Callahan poured coffee and Mrs. Earl Callahan served the punch.

Mrs. Mabel Houston provided and arranged several vases of beautiful flowers. The tablecloth used on the serving table belonged to Mrs. Lee Lovitt's grandmother.

Out-of-state guests included the Rev. and Mrs. Eldon Hunter of Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Callahan and family of Tulelake, Calif.

The honored couple received many beautiful gifts.

Amity Club Members Discuss Picnic Plans

Carol Clarkson, Enos Neil Cook Wed In Evening Rites at Nazarene Church

MR. and MRS. ENOS NEIL COOK

—Portrait by Schoen.

A June 1, 1963, wedding ceremony performed at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Nazarene church in Nyssa united Miss Carol Clarkson and Enos Neil Cook.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clarkson of Nyssa. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cook of Wakeeney, Kan.

Apricot-colored gladioli, white candles in the windows and silver tapers in the candelabra provided the setting for the double-ring rites performed by the Rev. John Bullock in the presence of 200 invited guests. Vocal selections were rendered by Karen Saunders and Lonnie Clarkson, accompanied by Sharon Gibson.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and chantilly lace with sequin trim. The lace-tiered skirt flowed into a chapel train. Her shoulder-length veil of French illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls. Her bouquet, carried on a white Bible, contained apricot-colored carnations centered with an orchid.

Ila Belle McGuire attended as matron of honor. She wore an apricot-colored sheath dress with white accessories and carried a bouquet containing a carnation encircled with apricot-colored rosebuds.

Bridesmaids were Marilyn and Jean Clarkson, Patty Bissonnett and Lois Adamson. Their dresses were identical to that of the matron of honor. Flower girl was Trena Robinson, who was attired in white nylon and lace and carried a basket containing rose petals.

Russell Cook served as best man, while ushers were David Saunders, Emery Kellogg, Virgil Dean Seward and Donnie Seward.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Clarkson wore a beige ensemble with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a blue-printed jersey frock and white accessories. Both wore corsages of apricot-colored rosebuds.

A four-tier wedding cake, trimmed with apricot-colored roses, silver leaves and topped with miniature bride and groom, centered the refreshment table at a reception held in the Nyssa Christian church following the ceremony.

Assisting with serving were Mrs. Charles Stookes, Mrs. Fred Cribbs and Mrs. Ronald Bissonnett. In charge of the gifts were Mrs. Lester Robinson, Mrs. David Alexander and Mrs. Walter Baker.

Following a wedding trip to Kansas, the newlyweds are now at home on route 2, Nyssa. The bridegroom is employed by Dean Blaylock and the new Mrs. Cook is a nurses' aide at Malheur Memorial hospital.

Jennifer Cleary, Tim Slate United In Lawn Ceremony

Jennifer Cleary of Emmett and Tim Slate of Parma were united in marriage at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, July 4, 1963, on the lawn at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Slate. The Rev. Victor Schulze of Trinity Lutheran church officiated.

The bride wore a jacket dress of white embossed lace and a small white hat. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations on a white Bible.

Attendants were Susan Cleary, the bride's sister, and Ronald Slate, brother of the bridegroom.

Approximately 20 relatives were present for the ceremony and reception which followed. Mrs. Ralph Vanderdasson of Caldwell, an aunt, made and decorated the pink and white wedding cake which was cut and served by Mrs. Victor Schulze.

The new Mrs. Slate wore an afternoon dress of black and white for a short wedding trip to Boise. The newlyweds plan to make their home in Emmett.
